

TRUE ROMANCE

Written by Quentin Tarantino

Davis Films

Revised: March 1991

FADE IN:

1 INT. BAR - NIGHT

1

A smokey cocktail bar in downtown Detroit.

CLARENCE WORLEY, a young hipster, hepcat, is trying to pick up on an older lady named LUCY. She isn't bothered by him, in fact, she's a little charmed but you can tell that she isn't going to leave her bar-stool.

CLARENCE

In "Jailhouse Rock," he's everything rockabilly's about. I mean, he is rockabilly; mean, surly, nasty, rude. In that movie he couldn't give a fuck about anything except rockin' and rollin', livin' fast, dyin' young and leavin' a good looking corpse. I love that scene where after he's made it big he's throwing a big cocktail party and all these highbrows are there, and he's singing, "Baby You're So Square... Baby, I Don't Care." Now they've got him dressed like a dick. He's wearing these stupid lookin' pants, this horrible sweater. Elvis ain't no sweater boy. I even think they've got him wearing penny loafers. Despite all that shit, all the highbrows at the party, the big house, the stupid clothes, he's still a rude lookin' motherfucker. I'd watch that hillbilly and I'd want to be him so bad. Elvis looked good. I'm no fag but Elvis was good lookin'. He was fuckin' prettier than most women. I always said if I had to fuck a guy... I mean had to cuz my life depended on it... I'd fuck Elvis.

Lucy takes a drag from her cigarette.

LUCY

I'd fuck Elvis.

CLARENCE

Really?

LUCY

When he was alive. I wouldn't fuck him now.

(CONTINUED)

1 CONTINUED:

1

CLARENCE

I don't blame you.

(they laugh)

So we'd both fuck Elvis. It's nice to meet people with common interests, isn't it?

Lucy laughs.

CLARENCE

Well enough about the king, how 'bout you?

LUCY

How about me what?

CLARENCE

How 'bout you go to the movies with me tonight?

LUCY

What are we gonna see?

CLARENCE

A Sonny Chiba triple feature. "The Streetfighter," "Return of the Streetfighter" and "Sister Streetfighter."

LUCY

Who's Sonny Chiba?

CLARENCE

He is bar none, the greatest actor working in martial arts movies ever.

LUCY

(not believing this)

You wanna take me to a Kung Fu movie?

CLARENCE

(holding up three fingers)

Three Kung Fu movies.

Lucy takes a drag from her cigarette.

LUCY

I don't think so.

2 INT. DINGY HOTEL ROOM - DAY

2

The SOUNDS of the city flow through an open window. CAR HORNS, GUNSHOTS and VOICES. Paint is peeling off the walls and the once green carpet is stained black.

On the bed is a huge open suitcase filled with clear plastic bags of cocaine. Shotguns and pistols have been dropped carelessly around the suitcase. On the far end of the room against the wall is a TV, "Bewitched" is playing.

On the opposite end of the room, by the front door, is a table. DREXL SPIVEY and FLOYD DIXON sit around it. cocaine is on the table as well as little plastic bags and a weigher. Floyd is black, Drexel is a whiteboy but you wouldn't know it to listen to him.

DREXL

Motherfucker get outta my face with that bullshit.

FLOYD

Naw man, I don't be eatin' that shit.

DREXL

That's bullshit.

BIG DON WATTS a stout mean-looking black man who's older than Drexel and Floyd walks through the door carrying hamburgers and french fries in two greasy brown paper bags.

FLOYD

Naw man, that's some serious shit.

DREXL

You lie like a big dog.

BIG D

What the fuck are you talkin' 'bout?

DREXL

Floyd says he don't be eatin' pussy.

BIG D

Shit, any nigger says he don't eat pussy is lyin' his ass off.

DREXL

I heard that.

FLOYD

Hold on a second, Big D. You sayin' you eat pussy?

(CONTINUED)

BIG D

Motherfucker, I eat everything. I eat the pussy, I eat the butt, I eat every motherfuckin' thang.

DREXL

Preach on, Big D.

FLOYD

Looky here. If I ever did eat some pussy -- I would never eat pussy -- but if I ever did eat some pussy, I sure as hell wouldn't tell no goddamn body. I'd be ashamed as a motherfucker.

BIG D

Shit! Motherfucker you smoke enough sherm your dumb ass'll do a lot o' crazy ass things. So won't eat pussy? Motherfucker you'll be up there givin' niggers head.

DREXL

Heard that.

Drex1 and Big D bump fists.

FLOYD

Go on, laugh pussy eaters. You two look like you be eatin' pussy. You got pussy eatin' mugs.

(he takes a hit off a joint)

There used to be a time when sisters didn't know shit about gettin' their bush licked. Then the sixties came an' they started fuckin' around with whiteboys. And whiteboys are freaks for that shit...

DREXL

Because it's good.

Drex1 and Big D bust up.

FLOYD

Thing is, now if a brother wants to get his dick sucked he's gotta do a bunch of fucked up shit.

(CONTINUED)

BIG D

So you do eat pussy?

FLOYD

Naw, naw!

BIG D

You don't like it but you eat that shit.

(to Drex1)

He eats it.

DREXL

Damn skippy! He like it too.

BIG D

(mock English accent)

Me thinketh he protest too much.

FLOYD

Well fuck you guys then! You guys are fucked up!

DREXL

Why you trippin'? We jus' fuckin' with ya. But I wanna ask you a question. You with some fine bitch, I mean a brick shithouse bitch -- you with Jayne Kennedy. You're with Jayne Kennedy and you say "Bitch, suck my dick." And then Jayne Kennedy says "first things first nigger, I ain't sucking shit 'til you bring your ass over here an' lick my bush." Now what do you say?

FLOYD

I tell Jayne Kennedy "Suck my dick or I'll beat you' ass."

BIG D

Nigger, get real. You touch Jayne Kennedy and she'll have you' ass in Wayne County so fast...

DREXL

Time out motherfucker, you ain't beating shit. Now what would you do?

FLOYD

I'd say fuck it!

(CONTINUED)

Drex1 and Big D get up from the table disgusted and walk away leaving Floyd sitting all alone.

Big D sits on the bed, his back turned to Floyd, watching "Bewitched."

FLOYD

(continuing; yelling after them)

Ain't no man have to eat pussy!

BIG D

(not even looking)

Take that shit somewhere else.

DREXL

(marching back)

You tell Jayne Kennedy to fuck it?

FLOYD

If it came down to who eats who, damn skippy.

DREXL

With that terrible mug of yours, if Jayne Kennedy told you to eat her pussy, kiss her ass, lick her feet and suck her dog, nigger you'd aim to please.

BIG D

(glued to TV)

I'm hip.

DREXL

In fact, I'm gonna show you what I mean with a little demonstration.
Big D toss me that shotgun.

Without turning away from "Bewitched," Big D picks up the shotgun and tosses it to Drex1.

DREXL

(continuing; to Floyd)

Allright, check this out.

(referring to shotgun)

Now pretend this is Jayne Kennedy, and you're you.

Then in a blink, he points the shotgun at Floyd and BLOWS him away.

Big D leaps off the bed and spins toward Drex1.

(CONTINUED)

2 CONTINUED: (4)

2

Drex1, waiting for him, FIRES from across the room.

The BLAST hits the big man in the right arm and shoulder, spinning him around.

Drex1 makes a bee-line towards his victim and FIRES again.

Big D is hit with a BLAST full in the back. He slams into the wall and drops.

Drex1 collects the suitcase full of cocaine and leaves.

As he gets to the front door he surveys the carnage, spits, and walks out.

3 INT. LYRIC THEATER - NIGHT

3

Sonny Chiba, as "Streetfighter," Terry Surki, dives into a group of guys, fists and feet flying, whipin' ass on the silver screen.

Clarence sits, legs over the back of the chair in front of him, nibbling on popcorn, eyes big as saucers and a big smile on his face (rat on the floor).

4 EXT. LYRIC THEATER - NIGHT

4

A cab pulls up outside of the Lyric. The marquee carries the names of the triple feature: "The Streetfighter" -- "Return of the Streetfighter" and "Sister Streetfighter." ALABAMA steps out of the cab and walks up to the box office.

The BOX OFFICE GIRL, reading an "Iron Man" comic, looks at her.

ALABAMA

One, please.

BOX OFFICE GIRL

Ninety-nine cents.

ALABAMA

Which one is on now?

BOX OFFICE GIRL

"Return of the Streetfighter." It's been on about forty-five minutes.

It's still assholes and elbows on the screen, with Sonny Chiba taking on all comers.

Alabama walks through the door with her bounty of food. She makes a quick scan of the theater. Not many people are there. She makes a beeline for the front, which just so happens to be Clarence's area of choice. She picks the row of seats just behind Clarence and starts making her way down it.

Clarence turns and sees this beautiful girl all alone moving towards him. He turns his attention back to the screen, trying not to be obvious.

When Alabama gets right behind Clarence, her foot hits a discarded wine bottle causing her to trip and spill her popcorn all over Clarence.

ALABAMA

Oh, look what happened. Oh God, I'm so sorry. Are you okay?

CLARENCE

Yeah, I'm fine. It didn't hurt.

ALABAMA

I'm the clumsiest person in the world.

CLARENCE

(picking popcorn out of his hair)
It's okay. Don't worry about it.
Accidents happen.

ALABAMA

(picking popcorn out of his hair)
What a wonderful philosophy. Thanks for being such a sweetheart. You could have been a real dick.

Alabama sits back in her seat to watch the movie.

Clarence tries to wipe her out of his mind, which isn't easy, and get back to the movie.

They both watch the screen for a moment. Then Alabama leans forward and taps Clarence on the shoulder.

ALABAMA

(continuing) Excuse me. I hate to bother you again. Would you mind too terribly on filling me in on what I missed?

(CONTINUED)

5 CONTINUED:

5

Jumping at this opportunity:

CLARENCE

Not at all. Okay, this guy here, he's Sonny Chiba.

ALABAMA

The Oriental?

CLARENCE

The Oriental in black. Hold on, a fight scene's comin' up.

They both watch, eyes wide, as Sonny kicks ass.

6 INT. LYRIC THEATER - NIGHT

6

On the screen, Sonny Chiba's all jacked up. Dead bodies lie all around him. "THE END" (in Japanese) flashes on the screen.

The theater lights go up. Alabama's now sitting in the seat next to Clarence. They're both applauding.

ALABAMA

Great movie. Action-packed!

CLARENCE

Does Sonny kick ass or does Sonny kick ass?

ALABAMA

Sonny kicks ass.

CLARENCE

You shoulda saw the first original uncut version of "The Streetfighter." It was the only movie up to that time rated X for violence. But we just saw the R.

ALABAMA

If that was the R, I'd love to see the X.

CLARENCE

My name is Clarence. What's yours?

ALABAMA

Alabama Whitman. Pleased to meet ya.

CLARENCE

Is that your real name, Alabama?
(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

Sounds like a Pam Grier movie.

(announcer voice)

She's a sixteen-caliber kitten, equally equipped for killin' and lovin'. She carried a sawed-off shotgun in her purse, a black belt around her waist and the white-hot fire of hate in her eyes. Pam Grier is Alabama Whitman. Pray for forgiveness. Rated R... for Ruthless Revenge.

EXT. LYRIC THEATER - NIGHT

Clarence and Alabama are outside the theater. With the marquee lit up in the b.g., they both perform unskilled martial arts moves. Clarence and Alabama break up laughing.

CLARENCE

Where's your car? I'll walk you to it.

ALABAMA

I took a cab.

CLARENCE

You took a cab to see three Kung Fu movies?

ALABAMA

Sure. Why not?

CLARENCE

Nothing. It's just you're a girl after my own heart.

ALABAMA

What time is it?

CLARENCE

'Bout twelve.

ALABAMA

I suppose you gotta get up early, huh?

CLARENCE

No. Not particularly.

(pause)

How come?

(CONTINUED)

7 CONTINUED:

7

ALABAMA

Well, it's just when I see a really good movie, I really like to go out and get some pie and talk about it. It's sort of a tradition. Do you like to eat pie after you've seen a good movie?

CLARENCE

I love pie.

Clarence is falling in love.

8 INT. DENNY'S RESTAURANT - NIGHT

8

Clarence and Alabama are sitting in a booth at an all-night Denny's. It's about 12:30 a.m. Clarence is eating a piece of chocolate cream pie and a Coke. Alabama's nibbling on a piece of heated apple pie and sipping on a large Tab.

Alabama takes a bite of pie, puts down her fork and looks at Clarence.

ALABAMA

Ask me them again. One by one.

CLARENCE

What do you do?

ALABAMA

I don't remember.

CLARENCE

Where are you from?

ALABAMA

I might be from Tallahassee. But I'm not sure yet.

CLARENCE

What's your favorite color?

ALABAMA

I don't remember. But off the top of my head, I'd say black.

CLARENCE

Who's your favorite movie star?

ALABAMA

Burt Reynolds.

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE

Would you like a bite of my pie?

ALABAMA

Yes, I would.

Clarence scoops up a piece on his fork and Alabama bites it off.

CLARENCE

Like it?

ALABAMA

Very much. Now where were we?

CLARENCE

What kinda music do you like?

ALABAMA

Phil Spector. Girl group stuff.
You know, like "He's a Rebel."

CLARENCE

What are your turn-ons?

ALABAMA

Mickey Rourke, somebody who can appreciate the finer things in life, like Elvis' voice, good Kung Fu and a tasty piece of pie.

CLARENCE

Turn-offs?

ALABAMA

I'm sure there must be something, but I don't really remember. The only thing that comes to mind are Persians.

CLARENCE

Do you have a fella?

She looks at Clarence and smiles.

ALABAMA

I'm not sure yet. Ask me again later.

CLARENCE

What's the story behind you takin' a cab to the most dangerous part of town alone?

(CONTINUED)

ALABAMA

Apparently, I was hit on the head with something really heavy, giving me a form of amnesia. When I came to, I didn't know who I was, where I was, or where I came from. Luckily, I had my driver's license or I wouldn't even know my name. I hoped it would tell me where I lived, but it had a Tallahassee address on it and I stopped somebody on the street and they told me I was in Detroit. So that was no help. But I did have some money on me, so I hopped in a cab until I saw somethin' that looked familiar. For some reason, and don't ask me why, that theater looked familiar. So I told him to stop and I got out.

CLARENCE

And in a theater full of empty seats, why did you sit by me?

ALABAMA

Because you looked like a nice guy, and I was a little scared and I sure coulda used a nice guy about that time, so I spilled my popcorn on you.

Clarence looks at her closely. He picks up his soda and sucks on the straw until it makes that SLURPING sound. He puts it aside and stares into her soul.

She bursts out giggling.

ALABAMA

(continuing; laughing) Aren't you just dazzled by my imagination, lover boy.
(eats her last piece of pie)
Where to next?

9 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - BEDROOM - NIGHT

9

Clarence's bedroom is a pop culture explosion. Movie posters, pictures of Elvis, anything you can imagine. Clarence and Alabama walk through the door.

ALABAMA

What a cool room.

She runs and does a jumping somersault onto his bed.

10 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - BEDROOM - NIGHT (LATER) 10

Clarence and Alabama make love in his bed. However, while they're not missing a beat during intercourse, Clarence can't shut up. The following dialogue sounds exactly like what it is, a man and a woman in the throes of passion trying to carry on a conversation.

CLARENCE

You know when you sat behind me?

ALABAMA

At the movies?

CLARENCE

Uh-huh. I was tryin' to think of somethin' to say to you, then I thought "She doesn't want me bothering her."

ALABAMA

What would make you think that?

CLARENCE

I dunno. I guess I'm just stupid.

ALABAMA

You're not stupid. Just wrong.

The time for talk is over.

11 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - BATHROOM - NIGHT (LATER) 11

The sweaty lovebirds are soaking in a post-passion hot bath. By the look of the comfort they share, it would be hard to imagine that they met not five hours ago.

ALABAMA

What's your favorite TV show?

CLARENCE

"Speed Racer."

ALABAMA

Who's your favorite rock star?

CLARENCE

Girl or boy?

ALABAMA

Girl.

CLARENCE

Janis Joplin.

(CONTINUED)

11 CONTINUED:

11

ALABAMA

I love Janis!

CLARENCE

You know a lot of people have misconceptions of how she died.

ALABAMA

She OD'd, didn't she?

CLARENCE

Yeah, she OD'd. But she wasn't on her last legs or anything. She didn't take too much. It shouldn't have killed her. There was something wrong with what she took...

ALABAMA

You mean she got a bad batch?

CLARENCE

That's what happened. In fact, when she died, it was considered to be the happiest time of her life. She'd been fucked over so much by men, she didn't trust them. She's having this relationship with this guy and he asked her to marry him. Now, other people had asked to marry her before, but she couldn't be sure whether they really loved her or were just after her money. So she said no. And the guy says "Look, I really love you and I wanna prove it. So have your lawyers draw up a paper that says no matter what happens, I can never get any of your money, and I'll sign it." So she did, and he did and he asked her and she said yes. And once they were engaged, he told her a secret about himself that she never knew; he was a millionaire.

ALABAMA

So he really loved her?

CLARENCE

Uh-huh.

12 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - BEDROOM - DAY 12

It's the next day around one in the afternoon. Clarence wakes up in his bed alone. He looks around and no Alabama. Then he hears crying going on in the distance. He puts on a robe and investigates.

13 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - LIVING ROOM - DAY 13

Alabama's wearing one of Clarence's old shirts. She's curled up in a chair crying. Clarence approaches her. She tries to compose herself.

CLARENCE

What's wrong, sweetheart? Did I do something? What did I do?

ALABAMA

You didn't do nothin'.

CLARENCE

Did you hurt yourself?.

(he takes her foot)

What dya do? Step on a thumbtack?

ALABAMA

Clarence, I've got something to tell you. I didn't just happen to be at that theater. I was paid to be there.

CLARENCE

What are you, a theater checker? You check up on the box office girls? Make sure they're not ripping the place off.

ALABAMA

I'm not a theater checker. I'm a call girl.

Pause.

CLARENCE

You're a whore?

ALABAMA

I'm a call girl, there's a difference, ya know.

(she takes a deep breath)

Here goes. You got a brother, right?

CLARENCE

Yeah... I got a twin brother named Dewey.

(CONTINUED)

ALABAMA

That's him. He called where I work and ordered a girl for you. He told them that you didn't get out much and he wanted you to get laid... seeing it was your birthday and all. But he didn't want me to just show up. He wanted me to act like I picked you up. How did he know you were gonna be at that theater?

CLARENCE

I go to the movies every year on my birthday. In fact, he called me up this week to find out what my birthday movie would be. Damn... when did he get so nice?

ALABAMA

You're not mad?

CLARENCE

Are you kiddin'? That was one of the best times I ever had. I knew something must be rotten in Denmark. There's no way you could like me that much. I kept waiting all night for the other shoe to drop. I can't tell you how relieved I was when you took off your dress and you didn't have a dick.

ALABAMA

Stop being so goddamn calm about all this! I was sitting here crying my fuckin' eyes out thinkin' how I was gonna break the news to you.

CLARENCE

Look...

ALABAMA

I'm tryin' to come clean so shut up! I've been a call girl exactly four days. And you're officially my third customer. I want you to know I'm not damaged goods. Me becomin' a call girl was strictly a career decision. It's not like I'm a whore -- it's strictly business -- big buck business.

CLARENCE

My brother paid you big bucks?

(CONTINUED)

ALABAMA

I just started last week. I'm in training right now. It will be big bucks business -- it would've been big bucks business -- I'm getting off the track. I want you to know, for instance, in school, I wasn't the school whore or anything. I had a boyfriend in junior high, David, he played basketball. We went together all through freshman high school year. Then he moved away and I didn't have a boyfriend for a year. Then, in the end of my junior year, I got another boyfriend, Glenn.

CLARENCE

What was he?

ALABAMA

Chinese. Anyway we went together for a little while then broke up. I'm telling you all this so you'll understand I'm not what we call in Florida white trash. I'm a very nice person. And when it comes to relationships I'm totally one hundred percent "managama" -- "manamana" --

CLARENCE

You stay with one guy.

ALABAMA

Exactly. If I'm with you, I'm with you. I don't want anybody else. Everything I just said is the truth so maybe you won't hold any lies I said last night against me too much. Now before I continue, I gotta ask you: What did you mean when you said last night was one of the best times you ever had? Did you mean physically?... or --

CLARENCE

No! Yes... but no. I'm talking about the whole night. I never had as much fun with a girl as I had with you my whole life.

ALABAMA

Yeah, I know. I hadn't had that much fun since Girl Scouts.

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE

You like Elvis. You like Janis.
You like comic books. You like the Partridge Family. You like Kung Fu movies...

ALABAMA

Actually, I don't like Kung Fu movies that much. That was part of the act. But I have to admit Sonny Chiba does kick ass, Clarence, and I feel really goofy saying this after only knowing you one night and me being a call girl and all. But I think I love you.

CLARENCE

Now don't bullshit me. I've been trying to keep perspective on this whole situation. If you say you love me, and I say I love you and then I throw caution to the wind and let the chips falls where they may and you're lying to me, I'm gonna fuckin' die.

ALABAMA

(holding up palm)

I'm not lying to you. And I swear right now, from this moment forth, I will never lie to you again.

CLARENCE

(as if he can't say it fast enough)

Okay, I love you too. I fell in love with you last night.

They just look at each other for a moment.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

What are you feeling?

ALABAMA

I feel like my heart's gotta go pee.

CLARENCE

'Bama, I realize we just met last night, but my parents went together all through high school, and they still got a divorce. So fuck it, you wanna marry me?

(CONTINUED)

13 CONTINUED: (4)

13

ALABAMA

What?

CLARENCE

Will you be my wife?

When Alabama gives her answer, her voice cracks.

ALABAMA

Yes.

CLARENCE

(a little surprised)

You will?

ALABAMA

You better not be fuckin' teasin' me.

They seal it with a kiss.

14 INT. TAXICAB - MOVING - DAY

14

Clarence and Alabama in a taxicab.

CLARENCE

Hello, Mrs. Worley.

ALABAMA

How do you do, Mr. Worley?

CLARENCE

Top o' the morning to you, Mrs. Worley.

ALABAMA

Bottom of the ninth, Mr. Worley.
Oh, by the by, Mr. Worley, have you seen your lovely wife today?

CLARENCE

Oh, you're speaking of my charming wife, Mrs. Alabama Worley.

ALABAMA

Of course. Are there others, Mr.
Worley?

CLARENCE

(moving on top of her)

Not for me.

He starts kissing her and moving her down on the seat.
She resists.

(CONTINUED)

14 CONTINUED:

14

ALABAMA
(playfully)
No no no no no no no no...

CLARENCE
(playfully)
Yes yes yes yes yes yes yes...

15 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - NIGHT

15

The two newlyweds walking through the door of Clarence's apartment, talking.

CLARENCE
Who and what is Drex1?

ALABAMA
My pimp.

CLARENCE
You have a pimp?

ALABAMA
I had a pimp. I was a call girl.
Call girls have pimps.

CLARENCE
Is he black?

ALABAMA
He thinks he is. He says his mother was Apache but I suspect he's lying.

CLARENCE
Is he nice?

ALABAMA
Well, I wouldn't go so far as to call him nice but he's treated me pretty decent. But I've only been there about four days. He got a little rough with Arlene the other day.

CLARENCE
What did he do to Arlene?

ALABAMA
Slapped her around a little.
Punched her in the stomach. It was pretty scary.

Back to Clarence's face. There's definitely something different about his eyes..

(CONTINUED)

15 CONTINUED:

15

Clarence springs off the couch and goes into his bedroom. Alabama is startled by his sudden movement.

ALABAMA

(continuing; yelling after him)

Where are you goin', honey?

CLARENCE (O.S.)

I just gotta get somethin'.

16 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - BATHROOM - NIGHT

16

Clarence splashes water on his face trying to wash away the images that keep polluting his mind. Then he hears a FAMILIAR VOICE.

FAMILIAR VOICE (O.S.)

Well, can you live with it?

Clarence turns and sees that the voice belongs to ELVIS PRESLEY. Clarence isn't surprised to see him.

CLARENCE

What?

ELVIS

Can you live with it?

CLARENCE

Live with what?

ELVIS

With that sonofabitch walkin' around breathin' the same air as you? And getting away with it every day. Are you haunted?

CLARENCE

Yeah.

ELVIS

You wanna get unhaunted?

CLARENCE

Yeah.

ELVIS

Then shoot 'im. Shoot 'im in the face. And feed that boy to the dogs.

(CONTINUED)

16 CONTINUED:

16

CLARENCE

I can't believe what the fuck you're tellin' me.

ELVIS

I ain't telling ya nuthin'. I'm jus' sayin' what I'd do.

CLARENCE

You'd really do that?

ELVIS

He don't got no right to live.

CLARENCE

Look, Elvis, he is haunting me. He doesn't deserve to live. And I do want to kill him. But I don't want to go to jail for the rest of my life.

ELVIS

I don't blame you.

CLARENCE

If I thought I could get away with it --

ELVIS

Killing 'im's the hard part. Gettin' away with it's the easy part. Whaddya think the cops do when a pimp's killed? Burn the midnight oil tryin' to find out who done it? They couldn't give a flyin' fuck if all the pimps in the whole wide world took two in the back of the fuckin' head. If you don't get caught at the scene with the smokin' gun in your hand, you got away with it.

Clarence looks at Elvis.

ELVIS

(continuing)

Clarence, I like ya. Always have, always will.

17 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - BEDROOM - NIGHT

17

CLOSE on a snub-nosed .38 which Clarence loads and sticks in a heavy athletic sock he's wearing.

18 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

18

CLARENCE

Sweetheart, write down your former address.

This hits Alabama from left field.

ALABAMA

What?

CLARENCE

Write down Drexler's address.

ALABAMA

Why?

CLARENCE

So I can go over there and pick up your things.

ALABAMA

(really scared)

No, Clarence. Just forget it, babe. I jus' wanna disappear from there.

He kneels down before her and holds her hand.

CLARENCE

Look, sweetheart, he scares you but I'm not scared of that motherfucker. He can't touch you now. You're completely out of his reach. He poses absolutely no threat to us. So if he doesn't matter, which he doesn't, it would be stupid to lose your things now, wouldn't it?

ALABAMA

You don't know him --

CLARENCE

You don't know me. Not when it comes to shit like this. I have to do this. I need for you to know you can count on me to protect you. Now write down the address.

19 EXT. DOWNTOWN DETROIT STREET - NIGHT

19

It's pretty late at night. Clarence steps out of his red Mustang. He's right smack dab in the middle of a bad place to be in in the daytime. He checks his pulse on his neck. It's beating like a race horse. To pump himself up he does a quick Elvis Presley gyration.

(CONTINUED)

19 CONTINUED:

19

CLARENCE
(in Elvis' voice)
Yeah... yeah...

He makes a beeline to the front door of a large dark apartment building.

20 INT. DARK BUILDING - NIGHT

20

He's inside. His heart is really racing now. He has the TV Guide that Alabama wrote the address on in his hand. He climbs a flight of stairs and makes his way down a dark hallway to apartment 22, the residence of Drex1 Spivey.

Clarence knocks on the door.

A YOUNG BLACK MAN, about twenty years old, answers the door. He has really big biceps and is wearing a black and white fishnet football jersey.

YOUNG BLACK MAN
You want somethin'?

CLARENCE Drex1?

YOUNG BLACK MAN
Naw, man. I'm Marty. Whatcha want?

CLARENCE
I gotta talk to Drex1.

MARTY
Well, what the fuck you wanna tell him?

CLARENCE
It's about Alabama.

A figure appears in the doorway wearing a yellow Farrah Fawcett T-shirt. It's our friend, Drex1 Spivey.

DREXL
Where the fuck is that bitch?

CLARENCE
She's with me.

DREXL
Who the fuck are you?

CLARENCE
I'm her husband.

(CONTINUED)

20 CONTINUED:

20

DREXL

Well, that makes us practically related. Bring your ass on in.

21 INT. DREXL'S LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

21

Drex1 and Marty about face and walk into the room continuing a conversation they were having and leaving Clarence standing in the doorway.

This is not the confrontation Clarence expected. He trails in behind Drex1 and Marty.

DREXL

(to Marty)

What was I sayin'?

MARTY

Rock whores.

DREXL

You ain't seen nothin' like these rock whores. They ass be young, man. They got that fine young pussy. Bitches want the rock they be freak for you. They give you hips, lips and the fingertips.

Drex1 looks over his shoulder at Clarence.

DREXL

(continuing; to Clarence)

You know what I'm talking about?

Drex1 gestures to one of the three Stoned Hookers lounging about the apartment.

DREXL

(continuing; to Marty)

These bitches over here ain't shit. - You stomp them bitches to death to get to the kinda pussy I'm talking about.

Drex1 sits down at the couch with a card table in front of it scattered with take-out boxes of Chinese food. A black exploitation movie is playing on TV.

DREXL

(continuing)

Looky here, you want the bitches to really fly high make your rocks with Cherry Seven-Up.

(CONTINUED)

MARTY

Pussy love pink rocks.

This is not how Clarence expected to confront Drex1 but this is exactly what he expected Drex1 to be like. He positions himself in front of the food table demanding Drex1's attention.

DREXL

(eating with chopsticks; to Clarence)

Grab a seat there, boy. Want some dinner? Grab yourself an eggroll. We got everything here from a diddly-eyed-joe to a damned-if-I-know.

CLARENCE

No thanks.

DREXL

No thanks? What does that mean? Means you ate before you came on down here? All full? Is that it? Naw, I don't think so. I think you're too scared to be eatin'. Now see, we're sitting down here ready to negotiate, and you've already given up your shit. I'm still a mystery to you. But I now exactly where your ass is comin' from. See, if I asked you if you wanted some dinner and you grabbed an eggroll and started to chow down, I'd say to myself "This motherfucker's carryin' on like he ain't got a care in the world. Who knows, maybe he don't. Maybe this fool's such a bad motherfucker, he don't got to worry about nothin'. He jus' sit down, eat my Chinese, watch my TV." You ain't even sat down yet. On that TV there, since you been in the room, is a woman with her titties hangin' out, and you ain't even bothered to look. You jus' been starin' at me. Now, I know I'm pretty, but I ain't as pretty as a couple of titties.

Clarence takes out an envelope and throws it on the table.

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE

I'm not eatin' 'cause I'm not hungry. I'm not sittin' 'cause I'm not staying. I'm not lookin' at the movie 'cause I saw it seven years ago. I'm not scared of you. I just don't like you. In that envelope is some payoff money. Alabama's moving on to some greener pastures. We're not negotiating. I don't like to barter. I don't like to dicker, I never have fun in Tijuana. That price is non-negotiable. What's in that envelope is for my peace of mind. My peace of mind is worth that much. Not one penny more, not one penny more.

You could hear a pin drop in the room. Once Clarence started talking, Marty went on full alert. Drex1 stopped eating and the whores stopped breathing. All eyes are on Drex1. Drex1 drops his chopsticks and opens the envelope. It's empty.

DREXL

It's empty!

Clarence flashes a wide Cheshire cat grin that says "That's right, asshole."

Silence.

DREXL

(continuing)

Ooooooooooh weeeeeeee! This child is terrible. Marty, you know what we got here? Motherfuckin' Charlie Bronson. Is that who you supposed to be, Mr. Majestyk? I ain't got no hold on Alabama. I jus' tryin' to lend the girl a helpin' hand.

Before Drex1 finishes the sentence, he picks up the card table and throws it at Clarence, catching him off guard.

Marty comes up behind Clarence and throws his arm around his neck, putting him in a tight choke hold.

Clarence, with his free arm, hits Marty hard with his elbow in the solar plexus. We'll never know whether that blow had any effect because just at that moment Drex1 takes a flying leap and tackles the two guys.

(CONTINUED)

21 CONTINUED: (3)

21

All of them go crashing into the stereo unit and a couple of shelves that hold records, all of which collapse to the floor in a shower of LP's.

Marty, who's on the bottom of the pile hasn't let go of Clarence.

Since Drex1's on top he starts slamming his fists into Clarence's face.

Clarence, who's sandwiched between these two guys, can't do a whole lot about it.

DREXL

Ya wanna fuck wi' me?

(hits Clarence)

Ya wanna fuck wi' me?

(hits Clarence)

I'll show ya who yer fuckin' wit'.

He hits Clarence hard in the face with both fists.

Clarence, who has no leverage whatsoever, grabs hold of Drex1's face and digs his nails in. He sticks his thumb in Drex1's mouth, grabs a piece of cheek and starts twisting.

Marty, who's in even worse a position can't do anything but tighten his grip around Clarence's neck until Clarence feels like his eyes are going to pop out of his head.

Drex1's face is getting torn up but he's also biting down hard on Clarence's thumb.

Clarence raises his head and brings it down hard, crunching Marty's face and busting his nose.

Marty loosens his grip on Clarence's neck.

Clarence wriggles free and gets up on to his knees.

Drex1 and Clarence are now on level footing, but awkward footing it is. The two are going at each other like a pair of alley cats, not aiming their punches, just keeping them coming fast and furious. They're not doing much damage to each other because of their positions, almost like a hockey fight.

Marty sneaks up behind Clarence and smashes him in the head with a stack of LP's. This disorients Clarence. Marty grabs him from behind and pulls him to his feet.

Drex1 socks him in the face. One, two, three! Then he kicks him hard in the balls.

(CONTINUED)

21 CONTINUED: (4)

21

Marty lets go and Clarence hits the floor like a sack of potatoes. He curls up into a fetal position and holds his balls, tears coming out of his eyes.

Drex1's face is torn up from Clarence's nails.

Marty has blood streaming down his face from his nose on to his shirt.

DREXL

(to Marty)

You okay? That stupid dumb-ass didn't break your nose, did he?

MARTY

Naw. It don't feel so good but it's alright.

Drex1 kicks Clarence, who's still on the ground, hurting.

DREXL

(to Clarence)

You see what you get when you fuck wit' me, white boy? You're gonna walk in my goddamn house, my house! Gonna come in here and tell me! Talking that smack in my house, in front of my employees. Shit! Your ass mus' be crazy.

(to Marty)

I don't think this white boy's got good sense.

(laughing)

Hey, Marty, he must o' thought it was white boy day. It ain't white boy day, is it?

MARTY

(laughing)

Naw, man, it ain't white boy day.

DREXL

(to Clarence)

Shit man, you done fucked up again. Next time you Bogart your way into a nigger's crib and get all in his face, make sure you do it on white boy day.

CLARENCE

(hurting)

Wannabee Nigger...

(CONTINUED)

21 CONTINUED: (5)

21

DREXL

Fuck you! My mother was Apache.

Drex1 kicks him again. Clarence curls up.

Drex1 bends down and looks for Clarence's wallet in his jacket.

Clarence still can't do much. The kick to the balls still has him down.

Drex1 finds the wallet and pulls it out. He flips it open to the driver's license.

DREXL

(continuing)

Well, well, well. Looky what we got here. Clarence Worley. Sounds almost like a nigger name.

(to Clarence)

Hey, dummy.

He puts his foot on Clarence's chest. Clarence's POV as he looks up.

DREXL

(continuing)

Before you brought your dumb ass through the door, I didn't know shit. I just chalked it up to au revoir Alabama. But because you think you're some macho motherfucker, I know who she's with -- You. I know who you are, Clarence Worley, and I know where you live, 4900 116th Street, apartment 48. And I'll make a million dollar bet Alabama's at that same address. Marty, take the car and go get 'er. Bring her dumb ass back here.

He hands Marty the driver's license. Marty goes to get the car keys and a jacket.

DREXL

(continuing; to Marty)

I'll keep lover boy here entertained.

(to Clarence)

You know the first thing I think I'll do when she gets here.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

21 CONTINUED: (6)

21

DREXL (CONT'D)

I think I'll make her suck my dick and I'll come all in her face. I mean it ain't nuttin' new. She's done it before. But I want you as an audience.

(hollering to Marty)

Marty, what the fuck are you doing?

MARTY (O.S.)

I'm trying to find my jacket.

DREXL

Look in the hamper. Linda's been dumpin' everybody's stray clothes in there lately.

While Drex1 has his attention turned to Marty, Clarence reaches into his sock and pulls out the .38. He sticks the barrel between Drex1's legs.

Drex1, who's standing over Clarence, looks down just in time to see Clarence pull the trigger and blow his balls to bits. Tiny spots of blood speckle Clarence's face.

Drex1 shrieks in horror and pain and falls to the ground.

MARTY (O.S.)

What's happening?

Marty steps into the room.

Clarence doesn't hesitate. He shoots Marty four times in the chest.

Two of the three Hookers have run out of the front door screaming. The other Hooker is curled up in the corner. She's too stoned to run, but stoned enough to be terrified.

Drex1, still alive, is lying on the ground, howling, holding what's left of his balls and dick.

Clarence points the gun at the remaining Hooker.

CLARENCE

Get a bag and put Alabama's things in it.

She doesn't move.

(CONTINUED)

21 CONTINUED: (7)

21

CLARENCE

(continuing)

You wanna get shot? I ain't got all fuckin' day, so move it!

The Hooker, tears of fear running her mascara, grabs a suitcase from under the bed and, on her hands and knees, pushes it along the floor to Clarence.

Clarence takes it by the handle and wobbles over to Drex1 who's curled up like a pill bug.

Clarence puts his foot on Drex1's chest.

CLARENCE

(continuing; to Drex1)

Open your eyes, laughing boy.

He doesn't. Clarence gives him a kick.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Open your eyes!

He does. It's now Drex1's POV from the floor.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

You thought it was pretty funny, didn't you?

He FIRES.

22 CLOSEUP

22

The bullet comes out of the gun and heads right towards us. When it reaches us the screen GOES AWASH WITH RED.

23 INT. CLARENCE'S APARTMENT - LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

23

The front door swings open and Clarence walks in.
Alabama jumps off the couch and runs toward Clarence but before she reaches him he blurts out.

CLARENCE

I killed him.

She stops short.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

I've got some food in the car. I'll be right back.

(CONTINUED)

23

CONTINUED:

23

Clarence leaves. Except for the TV playing, the room is quiet. Alabama sits on the couch.

Clarence walks back into the room with a whole bounty of take-out food. He heaps it onto the coffee table and starts to chow down.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Help yourself. I got enough. I'm fuckin' starvin'. I think I ordered one of everything.

(he stops and looks at her)

I'm so hungry.

He starts eating french fries and hamburgers.

ALABAMA

(in a daze)

Was it him or you?

CLARENCE

Yeah, but to be honest, I put myself in that position. When I drove up there I said to myself "If I can kill 'im and get away with it, I'll do it." I could, so I did.

ALABAMA

Is this a joke?

CLARENCE

No joke. This is probably the best hamburger I've ever had. I'm serious, I've never had a hamburger taste this good.

Alabama starts to cry. Clarence continues eating, ignoring her.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Come on, 'Bama, eat something. You'll feel better.

She continues crying. He continues eating and ignoring her. Finally he spins on her, yelling.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Why are you crying? He's not worth one of your tears. Would you rather it been me? Did you love him?

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

(no answer)

Did you love him?

(no answer)

Did you love him?

She looks at Clarence, having a hard time getting a word out.

ALABAMA

I think what you did was...

CLARENCE

What?

ALABAMA

I think what you did...

CLARENCE

What?

ALABAMA

I think what you did...

CLARENCE

What ?

ALABAMA

-- was so romantic.

Clarence is completely taken aback. They meet in a long passionate lover's kiss. Their kiss breaks and slowly the world comes back to normal.

ALABAMA

(continuing)

I gotta get outta these clothes.

CLARENCE

I have your things right here.

He picks up the suitcase and drops it on the table in front of her.

ALABAMA

(comically)

Clean clothes. There is a God.

Clarence flips open the suitcase. Alabama and Clarence's jaws drop.

ALABAMA

(continuing)

Clarence. Those aren't my clothes.

CUT TO:

24 EXT. CHEVY NOVA - MOVING - MORNING 24

A big white Chevy Nova is driving down the road with a sunrise sky as a backdrop. (The song "Little Bitty Tear" is heard a cappella?)

25 INT. CHEVY NOVA - MOVING - MORNING 25

CLIFFORD WORLEY is driving his car home from work, singing a song gently to the sunrise. He's a forty-five-year-old ex-cop, present security guard. In between singing, he takes sips from a cup of take-out coffee. He's dressed in a security guard's uniform.

26 EXT. TRAILER PARK - MORNING 26

The Chevy Nova pulls in as Cliff keeps crooning. He pulls up to his trailer to see something that stops him short. From Cliff's POV Clarence and Alabama are waiting for him in front of his trailer.

27 CLOSEUP - CLIFF 27

Upon seeing Clarence, a little tear rolls down his cheek.

28 BACK TO CLIFF'S POV 28

Clarence and Alabama walk over to the car. Clarence sticks his face through the driver's side window.

CLARENCE

Good morning, Daddy. Long time no see.

29 INT. TRAILER HOME - MORNING 29

All three enter the trailer home.

CLIFF

Excuse the place. I haven't been entertaining company as of late. Sorry if I'm acting a little dense but you're the last person in the world I expected to see this morning.

Clarence and Alabama walk into the living room.

CLARENCE

Yeah, well, that's okay, Daddy.
(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

I tend to have that effect on people. I'm dying of thirst. You got anythin' to drink?

Clarence moves past Cliff and heads straight for the refrigerator.

CLIFF

I think there's a Seven-Up in there.

CLARENCE

(rummaging around the fridge)

Anything stronger?

(pause)

Oh, probably not. Beer? You can drink beer, can't you?

CLIFF

I can, but I don't.

CLARENCE

(closing the fridge)

That's about all I ever eat.

Cliff looks at Alabama. She smiles sweetly at him.

CLIFF

(to Alabama)

I'm sorry... I'm his father.

ALABAMA

(sticking her hand out)

That's okay. I'm his wife.

(shaking hands vigorously)

Alabama Worley, pleased to meetcha.

Alabama is really pumping his arm, just like a used car salesman; however, that's where the similarity ends, because Alabama is totally sincere.

Clarence steps back into the living room, holding a bunch of little ceramic fruit magnets in his hand. He throws his other arm around Alabama.

CLARENCE

Oh yeah, we got married.

(referring to the magnets)

You still have these?

(to Alabama)

This isn't a complete set.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

When I was five I swallowed the pomegranate one. I never shit it out, so I guess it's still there. Loverdoll, why won't you be a sport and go get us some beer? I want some beer.

(to Cliff)

Do you want some beer? Well, if you want some, it's here.

He hands her some money and the car keys.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Go to the liquor store --

(to Cliff)

Where is there a liquor store around here?

CLIFF

Uh yeah... there's a party liquor store down 54th.

CLARENCE

(to Alabama)

Get a six-pack of something imported. It's hard to tell you what to get 'cause different places have different things. If they've got Fosters, get that. If not, ask the guy at the thing what the strongest imported beer he has is. Look, since you're making a beer run, would you mind too terribly if you did a food run as well? I'm fuckin' starvin' to death. Are you hungry, too?

ALABAMA

I'm pretty hungry. When I went to the store I was gonna get some Ding-Dongs.

CLARENCE

Well, fuck that shit. We'll get some real food. What would taste good?

(to Cliff)

What do you think would taste good?

CLIFF

I'm not very --

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE

You know what would taste good?
Chicken. I haven't had chicken in a while. Chicken would really hit the spot about now. Chicken and beer, definitely, absolutely, without a doubt.

(to Cliff)

Where's a good chicken place around here?

CLIFF

I really don't know...

CLARENCE

You don't know the chicken places around where you live?

(to Alabama)

Ask the guy at the place where a chicken place is.

He gives her some more money.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

This should cover it, Auggie-Doggie.

ALABAMA

Okee-dokee, Doggie-Daddy.

She opens the door and starts out. Clarence turns to his dad as the door shuts.

CLARENCE

Isn't she the sweetest goddamn girl you evah see in you whole life. Is she a four alarm fire, or what?

CLIFF

She seems very nice.

CLARENCE

Daddy, "nice" isn't the word. Nice is an insult. She's a peach.
That's the only word for it, she's a peach. She even tastes like a peach. You can tell I'm in love with her? You can tell by my face, can't ya? It's a dead giveaway.
It's written all over it. Ya know what? She loves me back. Take a seat, Pop, I gotta talk --

(CONTINUED)

CLIFF

Clarence, just shut up, you're giving me a headache. I can't believe how much like your mother you are. You're your fuckin' mother through and through. I haven't heard from you in three years. Then ya show up all of a sudden at eight o'clock in the morning. You walk in like a goddamn bulldozer... don't get me wrong... I'm happy to see you, just slow it down. Now, when did you get married?

CLARENCE

Daddy, I'm in big fuckin' trouble and I really need your help.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

30 INT. TRAILER HOME - DAY

30

CLIFF

I don't fuckin' believe this!

CLARENCE

Look, I know this is pretty heavy duty, so --

CLIFF

-- Stop talking!

Cliff pauses and collects himself.

CLIFF

(continuing)

What do you want from me?

CLARENCE

What?

CLIFF

Stop acting like an infant. You're here because you want me to help you in some way. What do you need from me? You need money?

CLARENCE

Do you still have friends on the force?

(CONTINUED)

CLIFF

Yes, I still have friends on the force.

CLARENCE

Could you find out if they know anything. I don't think they know shit about us. But I don't wanna "think," I wanna "know." You could find out for sure what's goin' on.

(pause)

Daddy?

CLIFF

What makes you think I could do that?

CLARENCE

You were a cop.

CLIFF

What makes you think I would do that?

CLARENCE

I'm your son.

CLIFF

You've got it all worked out, don't you?

CLARENCE

Look, goddamnit, I never asked you for a goddamn thing! I've tried to make your parental obligation as easy as possible. After Mom divorced you, did I ever ask you for anything? When I wouldn't see ya for six months to a year at a time, did I ever get in your shit about it? No! The whole time you were a drunk, did I ever point my finger at you and talk shit? No! Everybody else did. I never did. Now I need help and you can help me. I'm basically a pretty resourceful guy. If I didn't really need it, I wouldn't ask. And, if you say no, don't worry. I'm gone. No problem.

Alabama reenters with only the beer.

ALABAMA

The forager's back.

(CONTINUED)

30 CONTINUED: (2)

30

CLARENCE

Thank God. I could eat a horse if you slap enough catsup on it.

ALABAMA

I didn't get any chicken.

CLARENCE

How come?

ALABAMA

It's nine o'clock in the morning.
Nothing's open.

31 EXT. TRAILER HOME - DAY

31

Clarence and Cliff stand by Clarence's 1965 red Mustang. Alabama is amusing herself by doing cartwheels and handstands in the b.g.

CLIFF

They have nothing. In fact, they think it's drug-related.

CLARENCE

Do tell. Why drug-related?

CLIFF

Apparently, Drex1 had his big toe stuck into shit like that.

CLARENCE

No shit?

CLIFF

Yeah. Drex1 had an association with a fella named Blue Lou Boyle. Name mean anything to you?

CLARENCE

Nope.

CLIFF

If you don't hang around his circle, no reason it should.

CLARENCE

Who is he?

CLIFF

Gangster. Drug dealer. Somebody you don't want on your ass.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

CLIFF (CONT'D)

Look, Clarence, the more I hear about this Drexl fucker, the more I think you did the right thing. That guy wasn't just some wild flake.

CLARENCE

That's what I been tellin' ya. The guy was like a mad dog. So the cops aren't looking for me?

CLIFF

Naw. Until they hear something better, they'll assume Drexl and Blue Lou had a falling out. So once you leave town, I wouldn't worry about it.

Clarence sticks his hand out to shake. Cliff takes it.

CLARENCE

Thanks a lot, Daddy. You really came through for me.

CLIFF

I got some money I can give you --

CLARENCE

Keep it.

CLIFF

Well, son, I want you to know, I hope everything works out with you and Alabama. I like her. I think you make a cute couple.

CLARENCE

We do make a cute couple, don't we?

CLIFF

Yeah. Well, just stay outta trouble. Remember you got a wife to think about now. Quit fuckin' around.

(pause)

I love you, son.

They hug each other.

Clarence takes out a piece of paper and puts it in Cliff's hand.

(CONTINUED)

31 CONTINUED: (2)

31

CLARENCE

This is my friend Dick's number in Hollywood. That's where we're heading. We don't know where we'll be, but you can get hold of me through him.

Clarence turns towards Alabama's direction and yells at her.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

'Bama, we're outta here. Kiss Poppa goodbye.

Alabama runs across from where she was and throws her arms around Cliff and gives him a great big smackeroo on the lips. Cliff's a little startled. Alabama's bubbling like a Fresca.

ALABAMA

'Bye, Daddy. Hope to see you again real soon.

CLARENCE

(mock anger)

What kind of daughterly smackeroo was that?

ALABAMA

Oh, hush up.

The two get into the Mustang.

CLARENCE

(to Cliff)

We'll send you a postcard as soon as we get to Hollywood.

Clarence starts the ENGINE. The convertible roof opens as they talk.

CLIFF

'Bama, take care of that one for me. Keep him out of trouble.

ALABAMA

Don' worry, Daddy. I'm keepin' this fella on a short leash.

Clarence slowly starts driving away.

(CONTINUED)

31 CONTINUED: (3)

31

CLARENCE

As the sun sets slowly in the west, we bid a fond farewell to all the friends we've made... and with a touch of melancholy, we look forward to the time when we will all be together again.

Clarence PEELS OUT, shooting a shower of gravel up in the air.

As the Mustang disappears, Cliff runs his tongue over his lips.

CLIFF

The son of a bitch was right. She does taste like a peach.

32 INT. OUTSIDE OF CASTING DIRECTOR'S OFFICE - DAY

32

Four young actors are sitting on a couch with sides in their hands silently mouthing lines. One of the actors is DICK RITCHIE. The casting director, MARY LOUISE RAVENCROFT, steps into the waiting room, clipboard in hand.

RAVENCROFT

Dick Ritchie?

Dick pops up from the pack.

DICK

I'm me... I mean, that's me.

RAVENCROFT

Step inside.

33 INT. CASTING DIRECTOR'S OFFICE - DAY

33

Ravencroft sits behind a large desk. Her nameplate rest on the desk top. Several posters advertising "The Return of T.J. Hooker" hang on the wall.

Dick sits in a chair, holding the sides in his hands..

RAVENCROFT

Well, the part you're reading for is one of the bad guys. There's Brian and Marty. Peter Breck's already been cast as Brian and you're reading for the part of Marty.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

33 CONTINUED:

33

RAVENCROFT (CONT'D)

Now, in this scene, you're both in a car and Bill Shatner's hanging on the hood. And what you're trying to do is get him off.

(she picks up a copy of the script)

Whenever you're ready.

DICK

(reading and pantomiming he's driving)

Where'd he come from?

RAVENCROFT

(reading from script, lifelessly)

I don't know. He just appeared like magic.

DICK

(reading from sides)

Well, don't just sit there. Shoot him.

She puts her script down and smiles at him.

RAVENCROFT

Well, Mr. Ritchie, I'm impressed. You're a very fine actor.

Dick smiles.

34 EXT. HOLLYWOOD STREET - DAY

34

Dick, in his Honda Civic, drives up to his apartment.

35 INT. DICK'S APARTMENT - DAY

35

Dick's apartment is standard issue for a young actor. Things are pretty neat and clean. A nice stereo unit sits on a shelf. A framed picture of a ballet dancer's feet hangs on the wall.

Dick walks in and plays back the messages on his phone machine:

OLD MAN'S VOICE

(on machine)

Hello, hello, Dick?

(to someone in b.g.)

I don't think he's there.

(CONTINUED)

35 CONTINUED:

35

HANG UP sound. Dick shakes his head at the stupidity.

CLARENCE'S VOICE

(on machine)

Helloooo, babby! It's Clarence.
How ya doin', buddy? I'm on my way to L.A... I'm in Vegas now. Be there sometime tomorrow.

DICK

(shocked)

What!?

CLARENCE'S VOICE

I'm not alone. I'm bringing my wife with me.

DICK

(doubly shocked)

What!?

CLARENCE'S VOICE

You heard right. I got hitched.
Say hello, honeybear.

ALABAMA'S VOICE

Hello, Dick!

CLARENCE'S VOICE

Hope you got that very important -- very important -- so important -- I can't even begin to stress the importance -- letter I sent. See ya tomorrow.

Extremely confused, Dick turns OFF the machine. He goes over to the TV and picks up the day's mail. He goes through it.

36 INSERT - MAIL

36

- A) BILL: Southern California Gas Company
- B) BILL: Group W
- C) BILL: Fossenkemp Photography
- D) BILL: Columbia Record and Tape Club
- E) LETTER: It's obviously from Clarence. Addressed to Dick. Dick opens it.

37 INT. TRAILER PARK - DAY

37

Cliff's Chevy Nova pulls into the park. Cliff gets out of the Chevy. He is drinking out of a fast food soda cup as he opens the door to his trailer.

38 INT. TRAILER HOME - DAY

38

He steps inside his doorway and then, before he knows it, a gun is pressed to his temple and a big hand grabs his shoulder.

Cliff is roughly shoved into his living room. Waiting for him are four standing men, FRANKIE (young wise guy), LENNY (an old wise guy) and TOOTH PICK VIC (a firebug, pit bull type) and VIRGIL (huge, the quiet one).

Sitting in Cliff's reclining chair is VINCENZO COCCOTTI, the Frank Nitti to Detroit Mob Leader Blue Lou Boyle.

Cliff is knocked to his knees. He looks up and sees the sitting Coccotti. Frankie and Lenny pick him up and roughly drop him in a chair.

COCCOTTI

(to Frankie)

Tell Tooth Pick Vic to go outside and do you-know-what.

Frankie tells Tooth Pick Vic, in Italian, what Coccotti said. He nods and exits.

Cliff's chair is moved closer to Coccotti. Virgil stands on one side of Coccotti. Frankie and Lenny ransack the trailer. Virgil has a bottle of Chivas Regal in his hand, but he has yet to touch a drop.

COCCOTTI

(continuing)

Do you know who I am, Mr. Worley?

CLIFF

I give up. Who are you?

COCCOTTI

I am the Anti-Christ. You get me in a vendetta kind of mood, you will tell the angels in heaven that you had never seen evil so singularly personified as you did in the face of the man who killed you. My name is Vincenzo Coccotti.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

COCCOTTI (CONT'D)

I work as counsel for Mr. Blue Lou Boyle, the man your son stole from. I hear you were once a cop, so I can assume you've heard of us before. Am I correct?

CLIFF

I've heard of Blue Lou Boyle.

COCCOTTI

I'm glad. Hopefully, that will clear up the how-full-of-shit-I-am question you've been asking yourself. Now we're gonna have a little Q and A and, at the risk of sounding redundant, please make your answers genuine.

(taking out a pack of Chesterfields)

Want a Chesterfield?

CLIFF

No.

COCCOTTI

(as he lights one up)

I have a son of my own. About your boy's age. I can imagine how painful this must be for you. But Clarence and that bitch whore girlfriend of his brought this all on themselves. I implore you not to go down that road with 'em. You can always take comfort in the fact that you never had a choice.

CLIFF

Look, I'd help ya if I could, but I haven't seen Clarence -- Before Cliff can finish his sentence, Coccotti slams him hard in the nose with his fist.

COCCOTTI

Smarts, don't it? Gettin' slammed in the nose fucks you all up. You got that pain shooting through yer brain. Your eyes fill up with water. It ain't any kind of fun. But what I have to offer you, that's as good as it's ever gonna get, and it won't ever get that good again.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

COCCOTTI (CONT'D)

We talked to your neighbors, they saw a Mustang, a red Mustang, Clarence's red Mustang, parked in front of your trailer yesterday. Mr. Worley, have you seen your son?

Cliff's defeated.

CLIFF

I've seen him.

COCCOTTI

Now, I can't be sure of how much of what he told you. So, in the chance you're in the dark about some of this, let me shed some light. That whore your boy hangs around with, her pimp is an associate of mine, and I don't just mean pimping. In other affairs, he works for me in a courier capacity. Well, apparently, that dirty little whore found out when we were gonna do some business, 'cause your son, the cowboy, and his flame came in the room blastin' and didn't stop till they were pretty sure everybody was dead...

CLIFF

What are you talkin' about?

COCCOTTI

... outta there. Woulda got away with it, but your son, fuckhead that he is, left his driver's license in a dead guy's hand. A whore, hiding in the commode, filled in all the blanks.

CLIFF

I don't believe you.

COCCOTTI

That's of minor importance. But what's of major fuckin' importance is that I believe you. Where did they go?

CLIFF

On their honeymoon.

(CONTINUED)

COCCOTTI

I'm gettin' angry askin' the same question a second time. Where did they go?

CLIFF

They didn't tell me.

Coccotti looks at him.

CLIFF

(continuing)

Now wait a minute and listen. I haven't seen Clarence in three years. Yesterday, he shows up here with a girl, sayin' he got married. He told me he needed some quick cash for a honeymoon, so he asked if he could borrow five hundred dollars. I wanted to help him out, so I wrote out a check. We went to breakfast and that's the last I saw of him. So help me God. They never thought to tell me where they were goin', and I never thought to ask.

Coccotti looks at him for a long moment. He then gives Virgil a look. Virgil, quick as greased lightning, grabs Cliff's hand and turns it palm up. He then whips out a butterfly knife and slices Cliff's palm open and pours Chivas Regal on the wound. Cliff screams.

Coccotti puffs on his Chesterfield.

Tooth Pick Vic returns to the trailer and reports, in Italian, that there's nothing in the car.

Virgil walks into the kitchen and gets a dish towel. Cliff uses it to wrap up his hand.

COCCOTTI

Sicilians are great liars. The best in the world. I'm a Sicilian and my old man was the world heavyweight champion of Sicilian liars. And from growin' up with him, I learned the pantomime. Now there are seventeen different things a guy can do when he lies to give himself away. A guy has seventeen pantomimes. A woman's got twenty, but a guy's got seventeen.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

COCCOTTI (CONT'D)

And if ya know 'em like you know yer own face, they beat lie detectors all to hell. What we got here is a little game of show and tell. You don' wanna show me nuthin'. But you're telling me everythin'. Now I know you know where they are. So tell me before I do some damage you won't walk away from.

The awful pain in Cliff's hand is being replaced by the awful pain in his heart. He looks deep into Coccotti's eyes.

CLIFF

Could I have one of those Chesterfields now?

COCCOTTI

Sure.

Coccotti leans over and hands him a smoke.

CLIFF

Got a match?

Cliff reaches into his pocket and pulls out a lighter.

CLIFF

(continuing)

Oh, don't bother. I got one.

(he lights the cigarette)

So you're a Sicilian, huh?

COCCOTTI

(intensely)

Uh-huh..

CLIFF

You know, I read a lot. Especially things that have to do with history.
I find that shit fascinating. In fact, I don't know if you know this or not, Sicilians were spawned by niggers.

All the men stop what they were doing and look at Cliff, except for Tooth Pick Vic, who doesn't understand English and, so, isn't insulted.

Coccotti can't believe what he's hearing.

(CONTINUED)

COCCOTTI

Come again?

CLIFF

It's a fact. Sicilians have nigger blood pumping through their hearts. If you don't believe me, look it up. You see, hundreds and hundreds of years ago the Moors conquered Sicily. And Moors are niggers. Way back then, Sicilians were like the wops in Northern Italy. Blond hair, blue eyes. But once the Moors moved in there, they changed the whole country. They did so much fuckin' with the Sicilian women, they changed the bloodline forever from blond hair and blue eyes to black hair and dark skin. I find it absolutely amazing to think that, to this day, hundreds of years later, Sicilians still carry that nigger gene. I'm just quoting history. It's a fact. It's written. Your ancestors were niggers. Your great-great-great-great-grandmother was fucked by a nigger and had a half-nigger kid. That is a fact. Now tell me, am I lying?

Coccotti looks at him for a moment, then jumps up, whips out an automatic, grabs hold of Cliff's hair and pumps three bullets through Cliff's head.

He pushes the body violently aside.

Coccotti pauses. Unable to express his feelings and frustrated by the blood on his hands, he simply drops the weapon and turns to his men.

COCCOTTI

(to himself)

I haven't killed anybody since 1947.

(to the room)

Go to this comedian's son's apartment and come back with something that tells me where that asshole went, so I can wipe this egg off my face and fix this fucked-up family for good.

Tooth Pick Vic taps Frankie on the shoulder and, in Italian, asks him "What was that all about?"

(CONTINUED)

38 CONTINUED: (6)

38

Lenny, who has been going through Cliff's refrigerator, has found a beer. When he closes the refrigerator door, he finds a note being held on by a ceramic banana fruit magnet. It says "Clarence in L.A.: Dick Ritchie 213-555-9846."

LENNY

Boss, get ready to get happy.

39 EXT. HIGHWAY - DAY

39

The red Mustang enters Los Angeles.

40 EXT. DICK'S APARTMENT - MORNING

40

Clarence's hand and Alabama's hand knocking on Dick's door.

41 DICK'S POV

41

The door swings open to find Clarence and Alabama standing there.

CLARENCE/ALABAMA

(singing)

"Hello, my baby, Hello, my honey, Hello, my ragtime gal -- "

42 MED. ON DICK

42

Dick's standing in the doorway, hair a mess, pillow marks on his face and in a ratty bathrobe, not quite woken up.

DICK

Hi, guys.

Alabama throws her arms around Dick and gives him a quick kiss. After she breaks, Clarence does the same.

Clarence and Alabama walk right past Dick into his apartment.

CLARENCE

Wow! Neat place. Let's get some breakfast.

43 INT. CLARENCE'S MUSTANG - MOVING - DAY

43

The three drive down a Hollywood street en route to a motel. Clarence behind the wheel, Dick sitting next to him and Alabama in the back seat.

ALABAMA

When my mom went into labor, my dad panicked. He never had a kid before and crashed the car. Now picture this. Their car's demolished, a crowd is starting to gather, my mom is yelling, going into contractions, and my dad, who was losing it before, is now completely screaming yellow zonkers. Then, out of nowhere, as if from thin air, this big blue giant bus appears and the bus driver says "Get in here." He forgot all about his route and just drove straight to the hospital. So, because he was such a nice guy, they wanted to name the baby after him, as a sign of gratitude. Well, his name was Waldo and, no matter how grateful they were, even if I'd'a been a boy, they wouldn't call me Waldo. So they asked Waldo where he was from. And so, there you go.

CLARENCE

And here we are.

DICK

That's a pretty amazing story.

CLARENCE

Well, she's a pretty amazing girl.

A pause in the conversation.

DICK

Oh, guess what? I had a really good reading for "T.J. Hooker" the other day.

ALABAMA

You're gonna be on "T.J. Hooker"?

DICK

Knock wood.

He knocks the dashboard and then looks at it.

(CONTINUED)

43 CONTINUED:

43

DICK
(continuing) Or, plastic. I did real well. I think she liked me.

CLARENCE
Did you meet Captain Kirk?

DICK
You don't meet him in the audition.
That comes later. Hope, hope.

Alabama curls up in the back seat and reads a "Sergeant Fury" comic book that Clarence bought her.

44 EXT. HOLLYWOOD MOTEL - DAY

44

We see the Hollywood Motel sign. PAN to the parking lot where Clarence's empty red Mustang is parked.

45 INT. HOLLYWOOD MOTEL - CLARENCE'S ROOM - CLOSEUP - DAY 45

Dick's jaw drops. His hand reaches O.S.

46 CLOSEUP - SUITCASE

46 full of cocaine. Dick's hand enters the FRAME and fondles a bag. WIDEN.

Clarence smiles, holding a bottle of wine.

Alabama's watching the cable TV.

DICK
Holy Mary, Mother of God.

ALABAMA
This is great. We got cable.

CLARENCE
(to Alabama)
'Bama, you got your blade?

Keeping her eyes on the TV, Alabama pulls out a Swiss army knife with a tiny dinosaur on it from her purse and tosses it to Clarence. Clarence takes off the corkscrew and opens the bottle of wine.

In a couple of motel plastic cups, he pours some wine.
A big glass for Dick a little one for himself. He hands it to Dick. Dick takes it and drinks.

(CONTINUED)

DICK
This shit can't be real.

CLARENCE
It'll getcha high.

He tosses Dick the knife.

CLARENCE
(continuing)
Do you want some wine, sweetheart?

ALABAMA
Nope. I'm not really a wine gal.

Using the knife, Dick snorts some of the cocaine. He jumps back.

DICK
It's fuckin' real!
(to Clarence)
It's fuckin' real!

CLARENCE
I certainly hope so.

DICK
You've got a helluva lot of coke there, man!

CLARENCE
I know.

DICK
Do you have any idea how much fuckin' coke you got?

CLARENCE Tell me.

DICK
I don't know! A fuckin' lot!

Dick downs his wine. Clarence fills his glass again.

DICK
(continuing)
This is Drexl's coke?

CLARENCE
Drexl's dead. This is Clarence's coke and Clarence can do whatever he wants with it.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

And what Clarence wants to do is sell it. Then me and 'Bama are gonna leave on a jet plane and spend the rest of our lives spendin'. So you got my letter, have you lined up any buyers?

DICK

Look, Clarence, I'm not Joe Cocaine.

Dick gulps half of his wine. Clarence fills it up.

CLARENCE

But you're an actor. I hear these Hollywood guys have it delivered to the set.

DICK

Yeah, they do. And maybe, when I start being a successful actor, I'll know those guys. But most of the people I know are like me. They ain't got a pot to piss in or a window to throw it out of. Now, if you want to sell a little bit at a time --

CLARENCE

No way! The whole enchilada in one shot.

DICK

Do you have any idea how difficult that's gonna be?

CLARENCE

I'm offering a half a million dollars' worth of white for two hundred thousand. How difficult can that be?

DICK

It's difficult because you're selling it to a particular group. Big shots. Fat cats. Guys who can use that kind of quantity. Guys that can afford two hundred thousand. Basically, guys I don't know. And, more important, they don't know you. I did talk with one guy who could possibly help you.

CLARENCE

Is he big league?

(CONTINUED)

DICK

He's nothing. He's in my acting class. But he works as an assistant to a very powerful movie producer named Lee Donowitz. I thought Lee Donowitz could be interested in a deal like this. He could use it. He could afford it.

CLARENCE

Whaddaya tell 'em?

DICK

Hardly anything. I wasn't sure from your letter what was bullshit and what wasn't.

CLARENCE

What's this acting class guy's name?

DICK

Elliot.

CLARENCE

Elliot what?

DICK

Elliot Blitzler.

CLARENCE

Okay. Call 'em up and arrange a meeting, so we can get through all the getting to know you stuff.

DICK

Where?

CLARENCE

Where?

ALABAMA

The zoo.

CLARENCE

(to Dick)

The zoo.

(pause)

What are you waiting for?

DICK

Would you just shut up a minute and let me think.

CLARENCE

What's to think about?

(CONTINUED)

DICK

Shut up! First, you come waltzing into my life after two years. You're married. You killed a guy.

CLARENCE

Two guys.

DICK

Two guys. Now you want me to help you with some big drug deal. Fuck, Clarence, you killed somebody and you're blowing it off like it don't mean shit.

CLARENCE

Don't expect me to be all broken up over poor Drexel. I think he was a fuckin' freeloading, parasitic scumbag and he got exactly what he deserved. I got no pity for a mad dog like that. I think I should get a merit badge or somethin'.

Dick rests his head in his hands.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Look, buddy, I realize I'm laying some pretty heavy shit on ya, but I need you to rise to the occasion. So, drink some more wine. Get used to the idea. And get your friend on the phone.

47 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - CLOSE - A BLACK PANTHER - DAY 47

The four-legged kind, paces back and forth.

Clarence, Alabama, Dick and ELLIOT BLITZER are walking through the zoo. One look at Elliot and you can see what kind of actor he is, a real GQ, blow dry boy. as they walk and talk, Clarence is eating a box of Animal Crackers and Alabama is blowing soap bubbles.

ELLIOT

So you guys got five hundred thousand dollars' worth of cola that you're ready to unload for two hundred thousand?

CLARENCE

Unload? That's a helluva way to describe the bargain of a lifetime.

(CONTINUED)

DICK (trying to chill him out)
Clarence...

ELLIOT
Where did you get it?

CLARENCE
I grow it on my windowsill. The light's really great there and I'm up high enough so you can't see it from the street.

ELLIOT
(forcing a laugh)
Ha ha ha. No really, where does it come from?

CLARENCE
Coco leaves. You see, they take the leaves and mash it down until it's kind of a paste --

ELLIOT
(turning to Dick)
Look, Dick, I don't --

CLARENCE
(laughing)
No problem, Elliot. I'm just fuckin' wit' ya, that's all.
Actually, I'll tell you but you gotta keep it quiet. Understand, if Dick didn't insure me you're good people, I'd just tell ya, none of your fuckin' business. But, as a sign of good faith, here it goes. I gotta friend in the Department.

ELLIOT
What department?

CLARENCE
What do you think, eightball?

ELLIOT
The Police Department?

CLARENCE
Duh. What else would I be talking about? Now stop asking stupid doorknob questions.
(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

Well, a year and a half ago, this friend of mine got access to the evidence room for an hour. He snagged this coke. But, he's a good cop with a wife and a kid, so he sat on it for a year and a half until he found a guy he could trust.

ELLIOT

He trusts you?

CLARENCE

We were in 4-H together. We've known each other since childhood. So I'm handling the sales part. He's my silent partner and he knows, if I get fucked up, I won't drop dime on him. He's kinda paranoid. Now, no farther you understand. I didn't tell you nothin' and you didn't hear nothin'.

ELLIOT

Sure. I didn't hear anything.

Elliot is more than satisfied. Clarence makes a comical face at Dick when Elliot's not looking. Dick is wearing a "I don't believe this guy" expression. Alabama is forever blowing bubbles.

CUT TO:

48 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - SNACK BAR - DAY

48

We're in the snack bar area of the zoo. Alabama, Dick and Elliot are sitting around a plastic outdoor table. Clarence is pacing around the table as he talks. Alabama is still blowing bubbles.

CLARENCE

(to Elliot)

Do I look like a beautiful blonde with big tits and an ass that tastes like French vanilla ice cream?

Elliot hasn't the faintest idea what that is supposed to mean.

ELLIOT

What?

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE

Do I look like a beautiful blonde with big tits and an ass that tastes like French vanilla ice cream?

ELLIOT

(with conviction)

No. No, you don't.

CLARENCE

Then why are you telling me all this bullshit? Just so you can fuck me?

DICK

(trying to calm him down)

Clarence...!

CLARENCE

(to Dick)

Let me handle this.

ELLIOT

Get it straight. Lee isn't into taking risks. He deals with a couple of guys and he's been dealing with them for years. They're reliable. They're dependable. And they're safe.

CLARENCE

Riddle me this, Batman. If you're all so much in love with each other, what the fuck are you doing here?
I'm sure you got better things to do with your time than walk around in circles staring up a panther's ass.
Your guy's interested because with that much shit at his fingertips he can play Joe Fuckin' Hollywood till the wheels come off. He can sell it, he can snort it, he can play Santa Claus with it. At the price he's paying, he'll have the freedom to be able to just throw it around.
He'll be everybody's best friend.
Hey, let him run wild. Have a ball, it's his money. But don't expect me to hang around forever waiting for you guys to grow some guts.

Elliot has been silenced. He nods his head in agreement.

49 INT. PORSCHE - MOVING - MULHOLLAND DRIVE - DAY 49

Movie producer, LEE DONOWITZ, is driving his Porsche through the winding Hollywood Hills, just enjoying being rich and powerful. His cellular car phone RINGS. He answers.

LEE

Hello.

(pause)

Elliot, it's Sunday. Why am I talking to you on Sunday? I don't see enough of you during the week, I gotta talk to you on Sunday? Why is it, you always...

50 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - SNACK BAR - DAY 50

Elliot is on the zoo pay phone. Clarence is next to him. Dick is next to Clarence. Alabama is next to Dick, blowing bubbles.

ELLIOT

(on phone)

I'm with that party you wanted me to get together with. Do you know what I'm talking about, Lee?

51 INT. PORSCHE - MOVING - DAY 51

LEE

Why the hell are you calling my phone to talk about that?

52 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - SNACK BAR - DAY 52

ELLIOT

Well, he's here right now and he insists on talking to you.

53 INT. PORSCHE - MOVING - IN TUNNEL - DAY 53

In the tunnel Lee's voice ECHOES.

LEE

Are you out of your fucking mind?

54 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - SNACK BAR - DAY 54

ELLIOT

You said if I didn't get you on the --

(CONTINUED)

54 CONTINUED:

54

Clarence takes the receiver out of Elliot's hand.

CLARENCE

(into phone)

Hello, Lee, it's Clarence. At last we meet.

55 EXT. DICK'S APARTMENT - DAY

55

Virgil's knocking on Dick's door. Floyd, Dick's roommate, answers.

VIRGIL

Hello. Is Dick Ritchie here?

FLOYD

Naw, he ain't home right now.

VIRGIL

Do you live here?

FLOYD

Yeah, I live here, too.

VIRGIL

Sorta roommates?

FLOYD

Exactly roommates.

VIRGIL

Maybe you can help me. Actually, who I'm looking for is a friend of ours from Detroit, Clarence Worley. I heard he was in town. Might be traveling with a pretty girl named Alabama. Have you seen him? Are they staying here?

FLOYD

Naw, they ain't staying here. But I know who you're talking about. They're staying at the Hollywood Motel.

VIRGIL

How do you know? You been there?

FLOYD

No, I ain't been there but I heard him say it. Hollywood Motel, kinda easy to remember.

(CONTINUED)

55 CONTINUED:

55

VIRGIL
You're right. It is.

56 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - SNACK BAR - DAY

56

Clarence is still on the phone with Lee.

CLARENCE
Lee, the reason I'm talking with you is I want to open "Dr. Zhivago" in L.A. And I want you to distribute it.

57 INT. PORSCHE - MOVING DAY

57 stopped in traffic on Sunset Boulevard.

LEE
I don't know, Clarence. "Dr.
Zhivago's" a pretty big movie.

58 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - SNACK BAR - DAY

58

CLARENCE
The biggest. The biggest movie you've ever dealt with, Lee. We're talkin' a lot of film. A man'd have to be an idiot not to be a little cautious about a movie like that.
And, Lee, you're no idiot...

59 INT. PORSCHE - MOVING - DAY

59

Still stuck on Sunset Boulevard, traffic moving better now.

LEE
I'm not saying I'm not interested.
But being a distributor's not what I'm all about. I'm a film producer.
I'm on this world to make good movies. Nothing more. Now, having my big toe dipped into the distribution end helps me on many levels --

Traffic breaks and Lee speeds along. The background whizzes past him.

(CONTINUED)

59 CONTINUED:

59

LEE

(continuing)

-- but the bottom line is -- I'm not Paramount. I have a select group of distributors I deal with. I buy their little movies. Accomplish what I wanna accomplish. End of story. Easy, businesslike, very little risk.

60 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - SNACK BAR - DAY

60

CLARENCE

Now that's bullshit, Lee. Every time you buy one of those little movies, it's a risk. I'm not selling you somethin' that's gonna play two weeks, six weeks, then go straight to cable. This is "Doctor Zhivago." This'll be packing 'em in for a year and a half. Two years! That's two years you don't have to work with anybody's movie but mine.

61 INT. PORSCHE - MOVING - DAY

61

Porsche is now speeding down a beachside road.

LEE

Well then, what's the hurry? Is it that the rights to "Doctor Zhivago" are in arbitration?

62 EXT. LOS ANGELES ZOO - SNACK BAR - DAY

62

CLARENCE

I wanna be able to announce this deal at Cannes. If I had time for a courtship, Lee, I would. I'd take ya out, I'd hold ya hand, I'd kiss ya on the cheek at the door. But I'm not in that position. I need to know if we're in bed together or not. If you want my movie, Lee, you're just gonna have to come to terms with your Fear and Desire.

Pause. Clarence hands the phone to Elliot.

CLARENCE

(to Elliot)

He wants to talk to ya.

(CONTINUED)

ELLIOT
(into phone)
Mr. Donowitz?
(pause)
I told you, through Dick.
(pause)
He's in my acting class.
(pause)
About a year.
(pause)
Yeah, he's good.
(pause)
They grew up together.
(pause)
Sure thing.

Elliot hangs up the phone.

ELLIOT
(continuing)
He says Wednesday at three o'clock at the Beverly Wilshire. He wants everybody there.
(pointing at Clarence) He'll talk to you. If, after talkin' to you, he's convinced you're okay, he'll do business. If not, he'll say fuck it and walk out the door. He also wants a sample bag.

CLARENCE
No problem on all counts.

He offers Elliot an animal cracker.

CLARENCE
(continuing)
Have a cookie.

63 EXT. HOLLYWOOD MOTEL - DAY

63

The red Mustang with Clarence and Alabama pulls up at the motel. Alabama hops out, Clarence stays in.

ALABAMA
You did it, quickdraw. I'm so proud of you. You were like a ninja. Did I do my part okay?

CLARENCE
Babalouey! You were perfect. I could hardly keep from busting up.

(CONTINUED)

63 CONTINUED:

63

ALABAMA

I felt so stupid just blowing those bubbles.

CLARENCE

You were chillin', kind of creepy even. You totally fucked with his head. I'm gonna go grab some dinner.

ALABAMA

I'm gonna hop in the tub and get all wet and slippery and soapy. Then I'm gonna lie in the waterbed, not even bother to dry off, and watch X-rated movies till you get your ass back to my lovin' arms.

They kiss.

CLARENCE

We now return you to "Bullitt," already in progress.

He slams the Mustang in reverse and PEELS OUT of the motel. Alabama walks her little walk from the parking lot to the pool area. Somebody whistles at her, she turns to them.

ALABAMA

Thank you.

She gets to her door, takes out the key and opens the door.

64 INT. HOLLYWOOD MOTEL - CLARENCE'S ROOM - DAY

64

She steps in to find Virgil sitting in a chair placed in front of the door with a sawed-off shotgun pointed straight at her.

VIRGIL

(calmly)

Step inside and shut the door.

She doesn't move. She's frozen. Virgil leans forward.

VIRGIL

(continuing; calmly)

Lady, I'm gonna shoot you in the face.

She does exactly as he says. Virgil rises, still pointing the sawed-off.

(CONTINUED)

64 CONTINUED:

64

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Step away from the door, more into the room.

She does. He puts the shotgun down on the chair, then steps closer to her.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Okay, Alabama. Where's our coke, where's Clarence and when's he coming back?

ALABAMA

I think you got the wrong room, my name is Sadie. I don't have any Coke, but there's a Pepsi machine down the hall. I don't know any Clarence, but maybe my husband does.
You might have heard of him, he plays football, Al Lylzado. He'll be home any minute, you can ask him.

Virgil can't help but smile.

VIRGIL

You're cute.

Virgil throws a punch which catches Alabama square in the face, lifting her off the ground and dropping her flat on her back.

65 INT. RED MUSTANG - MOVING - DAY

65

Clarence, in his car, driving to get something to eat, singing to himself.

CLARENCE

"Land of stardust, land of glamor, Vistavision and Cinerama, everything about it is a must, to get to Hollywood or bust..."

66 INT. HOLLYWOOD MOTEL - CLARENCE'S ROOM - DAY

66

Alabama lying flat. She's actually blacked out for a moment, but the salty taste of blood in her mouth woke her up. She opens her eyes and sees Virgil standing there, smiling. She closes them, hoping it's a dream.
They open again to the same sight. She has never felt more helpless in her life.

(CONTINUED)

66 CONTINUED:

66

VIRGIL

Hurts, don't it? Get on your feet.

Alabama wobbily complies.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Where's our coke? Where's Clarence and when's he comin' back?

Alabama looks into Virgil's eyes and realizes that, without a doubt, she's going to die, because this man is going to kill her.

ALABAMA

Go take a flyin' fuck at a rolling donut.

Virgil doesn't waste a second. He gives her a punch to the stomach. The air is sucked out of her lungs. She falls to her knees. She's on all fours gasping for air that's just not there.

Virgil whips out a pack of Lucky Strikes. He lights one up with a Zippo lighter. He takes a long, deep drag.

VIRGIL

Whatsamatta? Can't breathe? Get used to it.

67 INT. HAMBURGER STAND - DAY

67

Clarence walks through the door of some mom-and-pop fast food restaurant.

CLARENCE

Woah! Smells like hamburgers in here. What's the biggest, fastest hamburger you guys got?

The IRANIAN GUY at the counter says:

IRANIAN GUY

That would be Steve's double chili cheeseburger.

CLARENCE

Well, I want two of them bad, boys.
Two large orders of chili fries and two large Diet Cokes.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

67 CONTINUED:

67

CLARENCE (CONT'D)
(looking at menu on wall)
And I'll tell you what. Why don't you give me a combination burrito as well.

68 INT. HOLLYWOOD MOTEL - CLARENCE'S ROOM - DAY

68

Alabama is violently thrown into the corner of the room. She braces herself against the walls. She is very punchy. Virgil steps in front of her.

VIRGIL
You think your boyfriend would go through this kind of shit for you?
Dream on, cunt. You're nothing but a fuckin' fool. And your pretty face is gonna turn awful goddamn ugly in about two seconds. Now where's my fuckin' coke?
(slap)
Where's Clarence?
(slap)
When's Clarence getting back?

She can barely raise her arm, but she somehow manages and she gives him the middle finger. Virgil can't help but smile.

VIRGIL
(continuing)
You got a lot a' heart, kid.

He gives her a spinning roundhouse kick to the head that sends her to the floor.

69 INT. HAMBURGER STAND - CLOSEUP - BURGERS - DAY

69 sizzling on the griddle. Chili and cheese are put on them.

PULL BACK TO Clarence, waiting for his order. He notices a CUSTOMER reading a copy of Newsweek with Elvis on the cover.

CLARENCE
That's a great issue.

The Customer lowers the magazine a little bit.

(CONTINUED)

CUSTOMER

Yeah, I subscribe. It's a pretty decent one.

CLARENCE

Have you read the story on Elvis?

CUSTOMER

No, not yet.

CLARENCE

It's probably the single best piece I've ever read about Elvis in my life.

CUSTOMER

That good, huh?

Clarence takes the magazine from the Customer's hands and starts flipping to the Elvis article.

CLARENCE

It tries to pin down what the attraction is, after all these years. It covers the whole spectrum of fans, the people who love his music, the people who grew up with him, the artists he inspired; Bob Dylan, Bruce Springsteen and the fanatics like these guys. I don't know about you, but they give me the creeps.

CUSTOMER

I can see what you mean.

CLARENCE

Like look at her. She looks like she fell off an ugly tree and hit every branch on the way down. Elvis wouldn't fuck her with Pat Boone's dick.

Clarence and the Customer laugh.

Alabama's pretty beat-up. She has a fat lip and her face is black and blue. She's crawling around on the floor. Virgil is tearing the place apart looking for the cocaine. He's also carrying on a running commentary.

(CONTINUED)

VIRGIL

Now, the first guy you kill is always the hardest. I don't care if you're the Boston Strangler or Wyatt Earp. You can bet that Texas guy, Charles Whitman, the fella who shot all them guys from that tower, I'll bet you green money that first little black dot that he took a bead on was the bitch of the bunch. No foolin', the first one's a tough one to hoe. Now, the second one, while it ain't no Mardi Gras, it ain't half as bad as the first. You still feel somethin', but it's just so diluted this time around. Then you completely level off on the third one. The third one's easy. It's gotten to the point now I'll do it just to watch their expressions change.

He's tearing the motel room up in general. Then he flips the mattress up off the bed and the black suitcase is right there.

Alabama is crawling unnoticed to where her purse lies.

Virgil flips open the black case and almost goes snow-blind.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Well, well, well, lookee here. I guess I just reached journey's end. Great. One less thing I gotta worry about.

Virgil closes up the case. Alabama sifts through her purse.

She pulls out her Swiss Army knife and opens it up. Virgil turns towards her.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Okay, sugarpop, we've come to what I like to call the moment of truth --

Alabama slowly rises, clutching the thrust-out knife in both hands. Virgil can't help but crack a smile.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Kid, you got a lot a' heart.

(CONTINUED)

70 CONTINUED: (2)

70

He moves towards her.

Alabama's hands are shaking.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Tell ya what I'm gonna do. I'm gonna give you a free swing. Now, I only do that for people I like.

He moves close.

Alabama's eyes study him. He grabs the front of his shirt and rips it open. Buttons fly everywhere.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Go ahead, girl, take a stab at it.

(giggling)

You don't have anything to lose.

71 CLOSEUP - ALABAMA'S FACE

71

Virgil's right, she doesn't have anything to lose.
Virgil's also right about this being the moment of truth. There is a ferocity in women that comes out at certain times, and it's just there under the surface in many women all the time. The absolute feeling of helplessness she felt only moments ago has taken a one hundred and eighty degree turn into "I'll take this motherfucker with me if it's the last thing I do" seething hatred.

Letting out a bloodcurdling yell, she raises the knife high above her head, then drops to her knees and plunges the knife deep into Virgil's right foot.

72 CLOSEUP - VIRGIL'S FACE

72

Talk about bloodcurdling yells.

73 BACK TO SCENE

73

Alabama is kicked in the teeth by Virgil's left foot.

Virgil bends down and carefully pulls the knife from his foot, tears running down his face.

While Virgil's bent down, Alabama smashes an Elvis Presley whiskey decanter that Clarence bought her over his head. It's only made of plaster and doesn't kill him.

(CONTINUED)

Virgil's moving towards Alabama, limping on his bad foot.

VIRGIL

Okay, no more Mr. Nice Guy.

Alabama picks up the motel TV set and throws it at him. He, instinctively, catches it and, with his arms full of television, Alabama cold-cocks him in the nose with her fist, breaking it.

Her eyes go straight to the door, then the sawed-off shotgun in the chair. She runs to it, bends over the chair for the gun; then Virgil's hand grabs her hair, pulls her backward, sending her on her butt. She stands up, he kicks her in the chest, knocking her backward into the bathroom and through the glass shower door.

Alabama, lying in the bathtub, grabs a small bottle of shampoo and squeezes it out in her hand.

Virgil reaches in the bathtub and grabs her hair.

Alabama rubs the shampoo in his eyes. He lets go of her and his hands go to his eyes.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Oh Jesus!

Alabama grabs hold of a hefty piece of broken shower door glass and plunges it into his face.

VIRGIL

(continuing)

Oh Mary, help me!

The battered, bruised and bloodied Alabama emerges from the shower. She's clutching the now bloody piece of broken glass. She's vaguely reminiscent of the Tasmanian Devil. Poor Virgil can't see very well, but he sees the figure coming toward him and lets out a wild haymaker that catches her in the jaw and knocks her into the toilet.

She recovers almost immediately and takes the porcelain lid off the back of the toilet tank.

Virgil whips out a .45 automatic from his shoulder holster just as Alabama brings the lid down on his head. He's pressed against the wall with the toilet lid hitting him. In this tight environment, he can't get a good shot off, but he FIRES anyway, hitting the floor, the wall, the toilet and the sink.

(CONTINUED)

73 CONTINUED: (2)

73

The toilet lid finally SHATTERS against Virgil's head.

Virgil falls to the ground.

Alabama runs to the medicine cabinet and whips out a big can of Final Net hair spray, pulls a Bic lighter from her pocket and, just as Virgil raises his gun at her, flicks the Bic and sends a stream of hair spray through the flame, which results in a big ball of fire that hits Virgil right in the face.

He FIRES off two shots. One hits the wall, the other hits the sink pipe, sending water spraying.

Upon getting his face fried, Virgil screams and jumps up, knocking Alabama down, and runs from the bathroom.

Alabama, seeing where he's heading, picks up the .45 automatic, which he's dropped, and FIRES at him. It's empty.

She jumps to her feet and runs after him.

74 INT. HOLLYWOOD MOTEL - CLARENCE'S ROOM - DAY

74

Virgil reaches the shotgun. His hands grasp it.

Alabama, meanwhile, has found and picked up the bloody Swiss army knife. She takes a knife-first-running-dive at Virgil's back. She hits him.

He arches up, FIRING the shotgun into the ceiling, dropping the gun and sending a cloud of plaster and stucco all over the room.

Alabama snatches up the shotgun.

Arched over on his back, Virgil's eyes make contact with Alabama's eyes.

The first BLAST hits him in the shoulder, almost tearing his arm off. The second hits him in the knee. The third plays hell with his chest.

Alabama then runs at the, by now, dead Virgil hitting him in the head with the butt of the shotgun.

Ever since she's been firing, it's as if some other part of her brain has been functioning independently. She's been, absentmindedly, saying the prayer of St. Francis.

(CONTINUED)

ALABAMA

"Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me love. Where there is despair -- hope. Where there is darkness -- light. Where there is sadness -- joy. Oh, divine Master, grant that I may not seek to be consoled but to console. That I may not seek to be understood, but to understand. And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life."

Clarence bursts through the door (having heard the gunshots), gun drawn, only to see Alabama hitting the dead Virgil on the head with the shotgun.

CLARENCE

Honey?

Alabama continues hitting away. Clarence puts his gun away.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Sweetheart, cops are gonna be here any minute.

She continues. He takes the gun away from her and she falls to the ground. She lays on the floor trembling, still continuing the downward swinging of her arm.

Clarence grabs the shotgun and the suitcase of cocaine and tosses Alabama over his shoulder.

75 EXT. HOLLYWOOD MOTEL - DAY

75

Everybody is outside of their rooms, watching, as Clarence walks through the pool area with his bundle. SIRENS can be heard approaching.

76 EXT. RED MUSTANG - MOVING - DAY

76

Clarence is driving like mad. Alabama has passed out in the passenger seat. She's muttering to herself. Clarence has one hand on the steering wheel and the other stroking Alabama's hair.

CLARENCE

Sleep baby, don't dream. Don't worry, just sleep. You deserve better than this I'm so sorry. Sleep, my angel. Sleep peacefully.

Elliot is sitting in a chair at a table. Two young good-looking, casually dressed, Starsky and Hutch type police detectives are questioning him. They're known in the department as NICHOLSON and DIMES. The dark-haired one is Cody Nicholson, he wears a black leather jacket; the blond one is Nicky Dimes, he's wearing a Letterman jacket.

NICHOLSON

Look dickhead, it's your bad luck that we caught you speeding! And it's your bad luck that you had a bag of uncut cocaine in your --

DIMES

Not a tiny little vial --

NICHOLSON

But a fucking baggie.

DINES

You got caught goin' a hundred and three on Mulholland with a bag of uncut snow white on your dash. Dickhead!

NICHOLSON

You got caught. It's all fun and fuckin' games 'til you get caught. But now we gotcha. Okay, mister Elliot actor, you've just made the big time --

DIMES

You're no longer an extra --

NICHOLSON

Or a bit player --

DIMES

Or a supporting actor --

NICHOLSON

You're a fuckin' star! And you're gonna be playing your little one man show nightly for the next two fucking years for a captive audience --

DIMES

But there is a bright side though. If you ever have to play the part of a guy who gets fucked in the ass on a daily basis by throat slittin' niggers, you'll have so much experience to draw on --

(CONTINUED)

NICHOLSON

And just think. When you get out in a few years, you'll meet some nice gal, get married, and you'll be so understanding to your wife's needs because you'll know what it's like to be a woman --

DIMES

'Course, you'll wanna fuck her in the ass. Pussy just won't feel right anymore.

NICHOLSON

That is, of course, if you don't catch AIDS from all your anal intrusions.

Elliot starts crying. Nicholson and Dimes exchange looks and smiles. Mission accomplished.

78 INT. POLICE STATION - CAPTAIN KRINKLE'S OFFICE - DAY 78

CAPTAIN BUFFORD KRINKLE is sitting behind his desk, where he spends about seventy-five percent of his time. He's your standard rough, gruff, no-nonsense by-the-book type police captain.

KRINKLE

Nicholson! Dimes! Get in here!

The two casually dressed, sneaker wearing cops, rush in.

NICHOLSON

Captain, this is it. We got it, man. And it's all ours. I mean talk about fallin' into somethin'. You shoulda seen it. It was beautiful Dimes is hitting him from the left about being fucked in the ass by niggers. I'm hittin' him from the right about not likin' pussy anymore. Finally, he just starts cryin' and then it was all over --

DIMES

Captain, you're lookin' at the two future cops of the month. We have it, and when I say we, I don't mean me and him, I'm referring to the whole department. Haven't had a decent bust this whole month. Well, we mighta come in like a lamb but we're goin' out like a lion --

(CONTINUED)

KRINKLE

Both you idiots shut up. I can't understand shit! Now what's happened? What's goin' on? And what are you talkin' about?

DIMES

Okee dokee. It's like this, Cap. A patrol car stops this dork for speeding. They do a small search for alcohol and find a bag of coke, uncut coke. You don't buy this on the street, this is dealin' coke. So they bring his ass in and me and Nicholson go to work on him --

NICHOLSON

Nicholson and I.

DIMES

Nicholson and I go to work on him. Now we know there's somethin' rotten in Denmark 'cause this dickhead had a big bag and it's uncut too, so we're sweatin' him, tryin' to find out where he got it. Scarin' the shit outta him --

NICHOLSON

Which wasn't too hard. The guy was a real squid.

DIMES

So we got this guy scared shitless and he starts talkin'. And Captain, you ain't gonna fuckin' believe it.

79 INT. DETROIT RESTAURANT - DAY

79

Very fancy restaurant. Frankie, Lenny and another hood, who we haven't met before, MARVIN are seated at a table with Coccotti.

COCCOTTI

-- And so, tomorrow morning comes and no Virgil. I check with Nick Cardella, who Virgil was supposed to leave the narcotics with; he never shows. Now, children, somebody is stickin' a red hot poker up my asshole and what I don't know is whose hand's on the handle.

(CONTINUED)

FRANKIE

You think Virgil started gettin' big ideas?

COCCOTTI

It's possible. Anybody can be carried away with delusions of grandeur. But, after that incident in Ann Arbor, I trust Virgil.

MARVIN

What happen?

LENNY

Virgil got picked up in a warehouse shakedown. He got five years. He served three.

COCCOTTI

Anybody who clams up and does his time, I don't care how I feel about him personally, he's okay.

NICHOLSON

It seems a cop from some department, we don't know where, stole a half a million dollars of coke from the property cage and he's been sittin' on it for a year and a half. Now the cop's got this weirdo --

DIMES

Suspect's words --

NICHOLSON

To front for him. So Elliot is workin' out a deal between them and his boss, a big time movie producer named Lee Donowitz.

DIMES

He produced "Coming Home in a Body Bag."

KRINKLE

That Vietnam movie?

NICHOLSON

Uh-huh.

(CONTINUED)

KRINKLE

That was a good fuckin' movie.

DIMES

Sure was.

KRINKLE

Do you believe him?

NICHOLSON

I believe he believes him.

DIMES

He's so spooked he'd turn over his momma, his daddy, his two-penny granny and Anna and the King of Siam if he had anything on him.

NICHOLSON

This rabbit'll do anything not to do time, including wearing a wire.

KRINKLE

He'll wear a wire?

DIMES

We talked him into it.

KRINKLE

Dirty cops. We'll have to bring Internal Affairs in on this.

NICHOLSON

Look, we don't care if you bring in the state militia, the volunteer fire department, the L.A.
Thunderbirds, the ghost of Steve McQueen and twelve Roman gladiators, so long as we get credit for the bust.

DIMES

Cocaine. Dirty cops. Hollywood.
This is Crockett and Tubbs all the way. And we found it so we want the fucking collar.

MARVIN

Maybe Virgil dropped it off at Cardella's. Cardella turns Virgil's switch off and Cardella decides to open up his own fruit stand.

(CONTINUED)

81 CONTINUED:

81

LENNY

Excuse me, Mister Coccotti.
(to Marvin)
Do you know Nick Cardella?

MARVIN

No.

LENNY

Then where the hell do you get off talkin' that kinda talk?

MARVIN

I didn't mean --

LENNY

Shut your mouth! Nick Cardella was proving what his word was worth before you were in your daddy's nutsack. What sun do you walk under that you can throw a shadow on Nick Cardella? Nick Cardella's a stand-up guy.

COCCOTTI

Children, we're digressing. Another possibility is that rat fuck whore and her whackadoo cowboy boyfriend out-aped Virgil. Knowing Virgil, I find that hard to believe but they sent Drexel to hell and Drexel was no faggot. So, you see, children, I got a lot of questions and no answers. Find out who this wing and a prayer artist is and take him off my neck.

82 EXT. IMPERIAL HIGHWAY - DAY

82

Clarence's red Mustang is parked on top of a hill, just off of Imperial Highway. As luck would have it, someone has abandoned a ratty old sofa on the side of the road. Clarence and Alabama (whose face is beaten up from the fight with Virgil) sit on the sofa sharing a jumbo Java and enjoying the sunrise or sunset and the wonderful view of the LAX runways, where planes are landing and taking off. A plane takes off and they stop to watch.

CLARENCE

Ya know, I used to fuckin' hate airports.

(CONTINUED)

ALABAMA

Really?

CLARENCE

With a vengeance. I hated them. I used to live by one back in Dearborn. It's real frustrating to be surrounded by airplanes when you ain't got shit. I hated where I was but couldn't do anything about it. I didn't have any money. It was tough enough just tryin' to pay the rent every month, an' here I was livin' next to an airport. Whenever I went outside, I saw fuckin' planes takin' off drownin' out my show. All day long, I'm seeing, hearing people doin' what I wanted to do most, but couldn't.

ALABAMA

What?

CLARENCE

Leaving Detroit. Goin' off on vacations. Starting new lives. Business trips. Fun, fun, fun, fun.

Another plane takes off.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

But knowin' me and you gonna be nigger rich gives me a whole new outlook. I love airports now. Me and you can get on any one of those planes there and go anywhere we want.

ALABAMA

You ain't kidding. We got lives to start over. We should go somewhere where we can really start from scratch.

CLARENCE

I been in America all my life. I'm due for a change. I wanna see what TV in other countries is like. Besides it more dramatic. Where should we fly off to my little turtle dove?

(CONTINUED)

82 CONTINUED: (2)

82

ALABAMA

Cancoon.

CLARENCE

Why Cancun?

ALABAMA

It's got a nice ring to it. It sounds like a movie, "Clarence and Alabama go to Cancoon," don't'cha think?

CLARENCE

But in my movie, baby, you get top billing.

They kiss.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Don't you worry about anything. It's all gonna work out for us. We deserve it.

MONTAGE

Everyone getting ready for the big day.

83 INT. DICK'S APARTMENT - DAY

83

Dick, Clarence and Alabama are just getting ready to leave for the drug deal. Floyd lays on the couch watching TV. Alabama's wearing dark glasses to hide some of the damage caused by Virgil.

CLARENCE

(to Floyd)

You sure that's how you get to the Beverly Wilshire?

FLOYD

Yeah. I've partied there twice. yeah, I'm sure.

DICK

Yeah, well if we get lost, it's your ass.

(to Clarence)

Come on, Clarence, let's go. Elliot's going to meet us in the lobby.

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE

I'm just making sure we got everything.

(to Alabama)

You got yours?

She holds up the suitcase. The PHONE RINGS. The three pile out the door. Floyd answers the phone.

FLOYD

Hello?

(he puts his hand over the phone)

Dick, it's for you. You here?

DICK

No. Say I left.

He starts to close the door, then opens it again.

DICK

(continuing)

I'll take it.

(he takes the receiver)

Hello.

(pause)

Hi, Catherine, I was just walkin' out the --

(pause)

Really?

(pause)

I don't believe it.

(pause)

She really said that?

(pause)

I'll be by first thing.

(pause)

No. Thank you for sending me out.

(pause)

'Bye, 'bye.

He hangs up and looks at Clarence.

DICK

(continuing; stunned)

I got the part on "T.J. Hooker."

CLARENCE

No shit? Dick, that's great!

Clarence and Alabama are jumping around. Floyd even smiles.

(CONTINUED)

83 ~~CONTINUED~~: (2)

83

DICK

(still stunned)

They didn't even want a callback.
They just hired me like that. Me and Peter Breck are the two heavies.
We start shooting Monday. My call is for seven o'clock in the morning.

CLARENCE

Ah, Dick, let's talk about it in the car. We can't be late.

Dick looks at Clarence. He doesn't want to go.

DICK

Clarence.

CLARENCE

Yeah?

DICK

Uh, nothing. Let's go.

They exit.

84 EXT. HOTEL/LAX - DAY

84

We see the airport and MOVE IN CLOSER on the landscape.

85 INT. HOTEL/LAX - ROOM - DAY

85

Lenny can be seen putting a shotgun together. He is sitting on bed.

Tooth Pick Vic ENTERS THE FRAME with his own shotgun.
He goes over to Lenny and gives him some shells.

Marvin walks THROUGH THE FRAME cocking his own shotgun.

The bathroom door opens behind Lenny and Frankie walks out twirling a couple of .45 automatics in his hands.

86 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

86

A room at the Beverly Wilshire. Nicholson and Dimes and four DETECTIVES from Internal Affairs are in a room on the same floor as Donowitz. They have just put a wire on Elliot.

NICHOLSON

Okay, say something.

(CONTINUED)

ELLIOT (talking loud into the wire)
Hello, hello, hello. How now brown cow!

DIMES
Just talk regular.

ELLIOT
(normal tone)
But soft. What light through yonder window breaks? 'Tis the east and yonder Juliet is the sun. Oh, arise fair sun and kill the envious moon that is sick and pale with grief --

NICHOLSON
Are you getting this shit?

DETECTIVE BY TAPE MACHINE
Clear as a bell.

Nicholson, Dimes and the head I.A. officer, WURLITZER, huddle by Elliot.

DIMES
Now, remember, we'll be monitoring just down the hall.

ELLIOT
And if there's any sign of trouble you'll come in?

NICHOLSON
Like gangbusters. Now remember, if you don't want to go to jail, we gotta put your boss in jail.

DIMES
We have to show in court that, without a doubt, a successful man, an important figure in the Hollywood community, is also dealing cocaine.

NICHOLSON
So you gotta get him to admit on tape that he's buying this coke.

DIMES
Hope you're a good actor, Elliot.

87 INT. RED MUSTANG - MOVING - DAY

87

Clarence, Dick and Alabama en route. Dick refers to Alabama's beat-up face.

DICK

You got that playing basketball?

ALABAMA

Yeah. I got elbowed in the eye and if that wasn't bad enough, I got hurled the ball when I'm not looking. Wham! Right in my face.

They stop at a red light. Clarence looks to Alabama.

CLARENCE

Red light means love, baby.

Clarence and Alabama start kissing.

88 INT. CADILLAC - MOVING - DAY

88

Marvin, Frankie, Lenny and Vic in a rented Caddy.

89 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - PARKING LOT - DAY

89

Clarence, Alabama and Dick get out of the Mustang. Dick takes the suitcase.

CLARENCE

I'll take that. Now remember, both of you, let me do the talking.

Clarence takes out a .45. Dick reacts. They walk and talk.

DICK

What the fuck did you bring that for?

CLARENCE

In case.

DICK

In case of what?

CLARENCE

In case they try to kill us. I don't know. What do you want me to say?

DICK

Look, Dillinger, Lee Donowitz is not a pimp --

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE

I know that, Richard. I don't think I'll need it. But something this last week has taught me it's better to have a gun and not need it than to need a gun and not have it.

~~Pause~~ Clarence stops walking.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Hold it, guys. I don't know about the rest of you, but I'm pretty scared. What say we forget the whole thing?

Dick and Alabama are both surprised and relieved.

DICK

Do you really mean it?

CLARENCE

No. I don't really mean it. Well, I mean this is our last chance to think about it. How 'bout you, 'Bama?

ALABAMA

I thought it was what you wanted, Clarence.

CLARENCE

It is what I want. But I don't want to spend the next ten years in jail. I don't want you guys to go to jail. We don't know what could be waiting for us up there. It'll probably be just what it's supposed to be. The only thing that's waiting for us is two hundred thousand dollars. I'm just looking at the downside.

DICK

Now's a helluva time to play "what if."

CLARENCE

This is our last chance to play "what if." I don't want to do it. I'm just scared of getting caught.

ALABAMA

It's been fun thinking about the money but I can walk away from it, honey.

(CONTINUED)

89 CONTINUED: (2)

89

CLARENCE

That rhymes.

He kisses her.

DICK

Well, if we're not gonna do it, let's just get in the car and get the fuck outta here.

CLARENCE

Yeah, let's just get outta here.

The three walk back to the car. Clarence gets behind the wheel. The other two get in. Clarence hops back out.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

I'm sorry, guys. I gotta do it. As petrified as I am, I just can't walk away. I'm gonna be kicking myself in the ass the rest of my life if I don't go in there. Lee Donowitz isn't a gangster lookin' to skin us and he's not a cop. He's a famous movie producer lookin' to get high and I'm just the man who can get him there. So what say we throw caution to the wind and let the chips fall where they may.

Clarence grabs the suitcase and makes a beeline for the hotel. Dick and Alabama exchange looks and follow.

90 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LOBBY - DAY

90

Elliot is walking around the lobby. He's very nervous.

Clarence enters the lobby alone, carrying the suitcase.
He spots Elliot and goes in his direction. Elliot sees Clarence approaching him. He says to himself quietly:

ELLIOT

Elliot, your motivation is to stay out of jail.

Clarence walks up to Elliot, they shake hands.

ELLIOT

(continuing)

Where's everybody else?

(CONTINUED)

90 CONTINUED:

90

CLARENCE
They'll be along.

Alabama and Dick enter the lobby and join up with Clarence and Elliot.

ELLIOT
Hi, Dick.

91 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY 91

Nicholson, Dimes and the other Detectives are surrounding the tape machine. Coming from the machine is Elliot and Clarence's conversation.

DICK (V.O.)
How you doin', Elliot?.

CLARENCE (V.O.)
Well, I guess it's about that time.

ELLIOT (V.O.)
I guess so. Follow me.

92 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ELEVATOR - DAY 92

Clarence, Alabama, Dick and Elliot are riding up in the elevator. As luck would have it, they have the car to themselves. Rinky dinky elevator MUZAK is playing.
They are all silent. Clarence breaks the silence.

CLARENCE
Elliot..

ELLIOT
Yeah.

CLARENCE
Get on your knees...

ELLIOT
(not sure he's heard him right)
What?

Clarence hits the stop button on the elevator panel and whips out the .45.

CLARENCE
I said get on your fuckin' knees!
Elliot does it immediately. Dick and Alabama react.

(CONTINUED)

92 CONTINUED:

92

CLARENCE

Shut up, both of you! I know what I'm doin'!

93 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY
Pandemonium.

93

DIMES

He knows.

NICHOLSON

How the fuck could he know?

DIMES

He saw the wire.

NICHOLSON

How's he supposed to see the wire?

DIMES

He knows something's up.

NICHOLSON

He's bluffing. He can't know.

94 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ELEVATOR - DAY

94

Clarence puts the .45 against Elliot's forehead.

CLARENCE

You must think I'm pretty stupid, don't you?

No answer.

CLARENCE

(continuing)

Don't you!?

ELLIOT

(petrified)

No.

CLARENCE

(yelling)

Don't lie to me, motherfucker. You apparently think I'm the dumbest motherfucker in the world, don't you? Say, Clarence, you are, without a doubt, the dumbest motherfucker in the whole wide world. Say it!

95 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

95

DIMES

We gotta get him outta there.

NICHOLSON

Whatta we gonna do? He's in an elevator.

96 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ELEVATOR - DAY

96

CLARENCE

Say it, goddamn it!

ELLIOT

You are the dumbest person in the world.

CLARENCE

Apparently I'm not as dumb as you thought I am.

ELLIOT

No. No, you're not.

CLARENCE

What's waiting for us up there?
Tell me or I'll pump two right in your face.

97 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

97

NICHOLSON

He's bluffing ya, Elliot. Can't you see that? You're an actor, remember the show must go on.

DIMES

This guy's gonna kill him.

98 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ELEVATOR - DAY

98

CLARENCE

Stand up.

Elliot does. The .45 is still pressed against his forehead.

CLARENCE

(continuing)
Like Nick Carter used to say, If I'm wrong, I'll apologize.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

98 CONTINUED:

98

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

I want you to tell us what's waiting for us up there. Something's amiss, I can feel it. If anything out of the ordinary goes down, believe this, you're gonna be the first one shot. Trust me, I am AIDS. You fuck me, you die. Now, quit making me mad and tell me why I'm so fucking nervous!

99 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

99

NICHOLSON

He's bluffing! I knew it. He don't know shit.

DIMS

Don't blow it, Elliot. He's bluffing. He just told you so himself.

NICHOLSON

You're an actor, so act, motherfucker!

100 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ELEVATOR - DAY

100

Elliot still hasn't answered.

CLARENCE

Okay --

With the .45 up against Elliot's head, Clarence puts his palm over the top of the gun to shield himself from the splatter. Alabama and Dick can't believe what he's going to.

Elliot, tears running down his face, starts talking for the benefit of the people at the other end of the wire. He sounds like a little boy.

ELLIOT

I don't wanna be here. I wanna go home. I wish somebody would just come and get me 'cause I don't like this. This is not what I thought it would be and I wish somebody would just come and take me away. Just take me away. Come and get me 'cause I don't like this anymore.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

100 CONTINUED:

100

ELLIOT (CONT'D)

I can't take this. I'm sorry but I just can't. So, if somebody would just come to my rescue, everything would be alright.

101 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

101

Nicholson and Dimes shake their heads. They have a "well, that's that" expression on their faces.

102 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ELEVATOR - DAY

102

Clarence puts down the gun and hugs Elliot.

CLARENCE

Sorry, Elliot. Nothing personal. I just had to make sure you're alright. I'm sure. I really apologize for scaring you so bad but, believe me, I'm just as scared as you. Friends?

Elliot, in a state of shock, takes Clarence's hand. Dick and Alabama are relieved.

103 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

103

Nicholson and Dimes listen open-mouthed, not believing what they're hearing.

104 INT. DICK'S APARTMENT - DAY

104

Floyd is lying on the couch, watching TV. He hasn't moved since we last saw him.

There is a KNOCK on the door.

FLOYD

(not turning away from the TV)

It's open.

The door flings open and the four wiseguys rapidly enter the room. The door slams shut. All have their sawed-offs drawn and pointed at Floyd.

FLOYD

Yes?

LENNY

Are you Dick Ritchie?

(CONTINUED)

104 CONTINUED:

104

FLOYD
No.

LENNY
Do you know Clarence Worley?

FLOYD
Yes.

LENNY
Do you know where we can find him?

FLOYD
He's at the Beverly Wilshire.

LENNY Where's that?

FLOYD
Well, you go down Beachwood --

105 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - CLOSEUP - 105
A FIST KNOCKING ON THE DOOR - DAY

The door opens and reveals an extremely muscular guy with an Uzi strapped to his shoulder standing in the doorway. His name is MONTY.

MONTY
Hi, Elliot. Are these your friends?

ELLIOT
You could say that. Everybody, this is Monty.

MONTY
C'mon in. Lee's in the can. He'll be out in a quick.

They all move into the room, it is very luxurious.

Another incredibly muscular guy, BORIS, is sitting on the sofa. He, too, has an Uzi.

Monty begins patting everyone down.

MONTY
(continuing)
Sorry, nothing personal.

He starts to search Clarence. Clarence backs away.

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE

No need to search me, daredevil.
All you'll find is a .45 caliber automatic.

Boris gets up from the couch.

BORIS

What compelled you to bring that along?

CLARENCE

The same thing that compelled your Beastmaster to bring rapid-fire weaponry to a business meeting.

BORIS

I'll take that.

CLARENCE

You'll have to.

The toilet FLUSHES in the bathroom. The door swings open and Lee Donowitz emerges.

LEE

You're here. Who's who?

ELLIOT

Lee, this is my friend, Dick, and these are his friends, Clarence and Alabama.

BORIS

(pointing at Clarence)
This guy's packing.

LEE

Really?

CLARENCE

Well, I have to admit, walking through the door and seein' those "Soldier of Fortune" poster boys made me a bit nervous. But, Lee, I'm fairly confident that you came here to do business, not to be a wiseguy. So, if you want, I'll put my gun on the table.

LEE

I don't think that will be necessary. Let's all have a seat.
Boris, why don't you be nice and get coffee for everybody.

(CONTINUED)

They all sit around a fancy glass table except for Boris, who's getting the coffee, and Monty, who stands behind Lee's chair.

CLARENCE

Oh, Mr. Donowitz --

LEE

Lee, Clarence. Please don't insult me. Call me Lee.

CLARENCE

Okay, sorry, Lee. I just wanna tell you that "Coming Home in a Body Bag" is one of my favorite movies. After "Apocalypse Now," I think it's the best Vietnam movie ever.

LEE

Thank you very much, Clarence.

CLARENCE

You know, most movies that win a lot of Oscars, I can't stand. "Sophie's Choice," "Ordinary People," "Kramer vs. Kramer," "Gandhi." All that stuff is safe, geriatric, coffee table dog shit.

LEE

I hear you talking, Clarence. We park our cars in the same garage.

CLARENCE

Like that Merchant Ivory claptrap. All those assholes make are unwatchable movies from unreadable books.

Boris starts placing clear glass coffee cups in front of everybody and fills everyone's cup from a fancy coffeepot that he handles like an expert.

LEE

Clarence, there might be somebody somewhere that agrees with you more than I do, but I wouldn't count on it.

Clarence is on a roll and he knows it.

CLARENCE

They aren't plays. They're not books. They certainly ain't movies.
(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

105 CONTINUED: (3)

105

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

They're films. And do you know what films are? They're for people who don't like movies. "Mad Max," that's a movie. "The Good, the Bad and the Ugly," that's a movie. "Rio Bravo," that's a movie. "Rumble Fish," that's a fuckin' movie and "Coming Home in a Body Bag," that's a movie. It was the first movie with balls to win a lot of Oscars since "Deer Hunter."

106 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

106

They're all listening to this.

DIMES

What's this guy doin'? Makin' a drug deal or gettin' a job on the New Yorker?

107 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

107

CLARENCE

My Uncle Roger and Uncle Cliff, both of which were in 'Nam, saw "Coming Home in a Body Bag" and thought it was the most accurate Vietnam film they'd ever seen.

LEE

You know, Clarence, when a veteran of that bullshit war says that, it makes the whole project worthwhile. Clarence, my friend, and I call you my friend because we have similar interests, let's take a look at what you have for me.

108 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

108

NICHOLSON

Thank God!

109 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

109

Clarence puts the suitcase on the table.

CLARENCE

Lee, when you see this, you're gonna shit.

110 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LOBBY - DAY

110

The four wise guys are at the desk.

LENNY (quietly, to the others)
What was that guy's name?

MARVIN Donowitz.

FRONT DESK GUY
How can I help your gentlemen?

LENNY
Yeah, we're from Warner Brothers.
What room is Mr. Donowitz in?

111 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

111

Lee's looking over the cocaine, sampling it.

CLARENCE
Now that's practically uncut. If you so desire, you could cut it a helluva lot more.

LEE
Don't worry, I'll desire. Boris, could I have some more coffee?

CLARENCE Me, too, Boris.

Boris fills both their cups. They both, calm as a lake, take cream and sugar. All eyes are on them. Lee uses light cream and sugar, he begins stirring his cup.
Clarence uses heavy cream and sugar.

LEE
(stirring loudly)
You like a little coffee with your cream and sugar?

CLARENCE
I'm not satisfied till the spoon stands straight up.

Both are cool as cucumbers.

LEE
I have to hand it to you, this is not nose garbage. This is quality.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

111 CONTINUED:

111

LEE (CONT'D)

Can Boris make anybody a sandwich?
I got all kinds of sandwich shit from Canter's in there.

ALABAMA

No, thank you.

DICK

No, but thanks.

CLARENCE

No thanks.

Lee continues looking at the merchandise. Alabama writes something on her napkin with a pencil and slides the napkin over to Clarence. It says "You're so cool" with a tiny heart drawn on the bottom of it. Clarence takes a pencil and draws an arrow through the heart. She takes the napkin and puts it in her pocket.

Lee looks up.

LEE

Okay, Clarence, the merchandise is perfect. But, whenever I'm offered a deal that's too good to be true, it's because it's a lie. Convince me you're on the level.

112 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY

112

NICHOLSON

If he don't bite, we ain't got shit except possession.

DIMES

Convince him, Clarence.

113 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY -

113

CLARENCE

Well, Lee, it's like this. You're getting the bargain of a lifetime because I don't know what the fuck I'm doing. You're used to dealin' with professionals. I'm not a professional, I'm a rank amateur. I could take that and I could cut it and I could sell it a little bit at a time and make a helluva lot more money.

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

CLARENCE (CONT'D)

But, in order to do that, I'd have to become a drug dealer. I'm not a drug dealer and I don't wanna become a drug dealer. Deal with cut-throat junkies, killers; worry about gettin' busted all the time? Just meeting you here today scares the shit outta me and you're not a junkie, a killer or a cop, you're a fucking movie producer. I like you and I'm still scared. I'm a punk kid who picked up a rock in the street, only to find out it's the Hope Diamond. It's worth a million dollars, but I can't get a million for it. But you can. So I'll sell it to you for a couple a' hundred thousand, you go make a million. It's all found money to me anyway. Me and my wife are minimum wage kids. Two hundred thousand is the world.

LEE

Elliot tells me you're fronting for a dirty cop.

CLARENCE

Well, Elliot wasn't supposed to tell you anything. He's not a dirty cop, he's a good cop. He just saw his chance and he took it.

LEE

Why does he trust you?

CLARENCE

We grew up together.

LEE

If you don' know shit, why does he think you can sell it?

CLARENCE

I bullshitted him.

Lee starts laughing.

LEE

That's wild. This fuckin' guy's a madman. I love it. Monty, go in the other room and get the money.

Clarence, Alabama and Dick exchange looks.

114 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY 114

Nicholson makes a hole with his thumb and forefinger.
Dimes smiles and sticks his finger through the hole.
They are triumphant.

115 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ELEVATOR - DAY 115

The four wiseguys are coming up.

116 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY 116

LEE
(pointing to Alabama)
What's your part in this?

ALABAMA
I'm his wife.

LEE
(referring to Dick)
How about you?

DICK
I know Elliot.

LEE
And Elliot knows me.

Monty brings in a briefcase with the money and puts it on the table.

LEE
(continuing)
Wanna count your money?

CLARENCE
Actually, they can count it. I'd like to use the little boy's room.

117 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - COPS' HOTEL ROOM - DAY 117

They all stand.

DIMES
Okay, boys, let's go gettem.

118 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - BATHROOM 118
- DAY

Clarence steps inside the bathroom and shuts the door.
As soon as it's shut, he starts doing the twist. He can't believe he pulled it off.

(CONTINUED)

118 CONTINUED:

118

He goes to the toilet and starts taking a piss. He turns and sees Elvis sitting on the sink.

ELVIS

Clarence, I gotta hand it to ya.
You were cooler than cool.

119 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

119

Everything just as it was.

Suddenly, Nicholson, Dimes and the four detectives burst into the room, guns drawn.

NICHOLSON/DIMES

Police! Freeze! You're all under arrest.

Everybody at the table stands up. Boris and Monty stand ready with their Uzis.

NICHOLSON

(continuing)

You two. Put the guns on the floor and back away.

MONTY

Fuck you! All you pigs put your guns on the floor and back away.

LEE

Monty, what are you talking about? Do what they say.

DIMES

This is your last warning! Drop those fuckin' guns.

BORIS

This is your last warning! We could kill all six of ya and ya fuckin' know it! Now get on the floor!

DICK

What the fuck am I doing here?

LEE

Boris! Everybody's gonna get killed! They're cops!

MONTY

So, they're cops. Who gives a shit?

(CONTINUED)

119 CONTINUED:

119

BORIS

Lee, something I never told you about me. I don't like cops.

DIMES

Okay, let's everybody calm down and get nice. Nobody has to die. We don't want it and you don't want it.

LEE

We don't want it.

Suddenly, the four wiseguys burst through the door, shotguns drawn except for Frankie, who has two .45 automatics, one in each hand.

Half of the cops spin around.

WURLITZER

Freeze!

LENNY

Who are you guys?

WURLITZER

Police!

VIC

(to Lenny)

Do we get any extra if we have to kill cops?

120 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - BATHROOM 120
- DAY

Clarence and Elvis.

CLARENCE

How do you think I'm doin' with Lee?

ELVIS

Are you kiddin'? He loves you.

CLARENCE

You don't think I'm kissin' his ass, do you?

ELVIS

You're telling him what he wants to hear, but that ain't the same thing as kissin' his ass.

(CONTINUED)

120 CONTINUED:

120

CLARENCE

I'm not lyin' to him. I mean it. I loved "Coming Home in a Body Bag."

ELVIS

That's why it don't come across as ass kissin' because it's genuine and he can see it.

Elvis fixes Clarence's collar.

ELVIS

(continuing)

I like ya, Clarence. Always have.

121 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

121

This is a Mexican standoff, if ever there was one. Gangsters at one end, with shotguns. Bodyguards at the other end, with machine guns. And cops in the middle, with handguns.

Dick's ready to pass out.

Alabama's so scared she's peed on herself.

For Elliot, this has been the worst day of his life and he's about had it.

ELLIOT

Officer Dimes? Officer Dimes?

Dimes looks at Elliot.

ELLIOT

(continuing)

This has nothing to do with me anymore. Can I just leave and you guys just settle it by yourselves?

DIMES

Elliot, shut the fuck up and stay put!

LEE

(to Elliot)

How did you know his name? How the fuck did he know your name? Why, you fuckin' little piece of shit!

ELLIOT

Lee, understand, I didn't want to --

(CONTINUED)

121 CONTINUED:

121

NICHOLSON

Shut the fuck up!

LEE

Well, I hope you're not planning on acting in the next twenty years 'cause your career is over, as of now. You might as well burn your SAG card! To think I treated you as a son! And you stabbed me in the heart!

Lee can't control his anger anymore. He grabs the coffeepot off the table and flings hot coffee in Elliot's face. Elliot screams and falls to his knees.

Instinctively, Nicholson SHOTS Lee twice.

Alabama screams.

Boris lets loose with the Uzi, painting Nicholson red with BULLETS.

DIMS

(screaming)

Cody!!

Nicholson flies backwards.

Vic FIRES his shotgun, hitting Nicholson in the back, jerking Nicholson's body back and forth and then onto the floor.

Clarence opens the bathroom door.

Dims hits the ground FIRING.

A SHOT catches Clarence in the forehead.

Alabama screams.

Vic FIRES his sawed-off shotgun. It catches Clarence in the chest, hurling him on top of the bathroom sink, smashing the mirror.

It might have been a stand-off before but, once the firing started, everybody's either hitting the ground or running for cover.

Dims, Alabama, Dick, Lenny, an IA officer and Wurlitzer hit the ground.

Boris dives into the kitchen area.

(CONTINUED)

121 CONTINUED: (2)

121

Monty tips the table over.

Marvin dives behind a sofa.

Frankie runs out of the door and down the hall.

With BULLETS flying this way and that, some didn't have time to do anything. Two IA officers were hit straight away.

Vic takes a Uzi hit and goes down FIRING.

Elliot gets it from both sides.

Alabama is crawling across the floor like a soldier in war towards the bathroom.

Clarence, barely alive, lays on the sink twitching. He moves and falls off.

Alabama continues crawling towards him.

Marvin brings his sawed-off up from behind the sofa and FIRES. The shotgun BLAST hits the glass table and Monty. Monty stands up, screaming.

The cops on the ground let loose, hitting Monty.

As Monty goes down, his finger hits the trigger of the Uzi, SPRAYING FIRE all over the room.

122 EXT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - DAY

122

Cop cars start arriving in twos at the front of the hotel.

123 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

123

Alabama still crawling towards Clarence.

The suitcase full of cocaine is besides Dick. Dick grabs it and tosses it in the air. Marvin comes from behind the sofa and FIRES. The suitcase is hit in midair and white powder goes everywhere. The room is enveloped in cocaine.

Dick takes this as his cue and makes a dash out of the door.

An IA officer goes after him.

(CONTINUED)

123 CONTINUED:

123

Lenny makes a break for it.

Wurlitzer goes after him but is pinned down by Marvin.

Alabama reaches Clarence.

ALABAMA

Sweetie?

Clarence's face is awash with blood.

CLARENCE

(weakly)

I... I can't see you... I've got blood in my eyes...

He dies.

Alabama tries to give him mouth to mouth resuscitation.

124 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - HALLWAY - DAY

124

Frankie runs down the hall, right into a cluster of uniformed police.

He FIRES his .45's, hitting two just before the others chop him to ribbons.

125 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ANOTHER HALLWAY - DAY

125

Hallway is empty but we hear FOOTSTEPS approaching fast. Dick comes around the corner, running as if on fire. Then we see the IA officer turn the same corner.

IA OFFICER

(aiming gun at him)

Freeze!

Dick does.

DICK

I'm unarmed!

IA OFFICER

Put your hands on your head, you sonofabitch!

He does. Then coming from O.S., a SHOTGUN BLAST tears into the IA Officer sending him into the wall.

(CONTINUED)

125 CONTINUED:

125

DICK
(continuing) Oh shit!

He starts running again and runs OUT OF THE FRAME.
Then Lenny turns the corner and runs down the hall.

Dick runs into the elevator area. He hits the buttons. He's trapped, it's like a box.

Lenny catches up. Dick raises his hands. Lenny aims the sawed-off shotgun.

LENNY
Look, I don' know who you are but whatever it was that I did to you,
I'm so sorry.

Two elevator doors on either side of them open up.

Lenny looks at Dick. He drops his aim and says:

LENNY
(continuing) Lotsa luck!

Lenny dives into one elevator car. Dick jumps into the other.

126 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

126

Dimes and Wurlitzer call to Marvin behind the couch.

DIMES
Okay, black jacket! It's two against one now. Toss the gun out and lie face down on the floor or die like all your friends.

The shotgun is tossed out from behind the couch.

Meanwhile, Alabama is pounding on Clarence's bloody chest trying to get his heart started. It isn't working. She slaps him hard on the face a couple of times.

ALABAMA
Wake up goddamn it!

127 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - ELEVATOR - DAY

127

Dick's sitting on the floor, not believing any of this.
The doors open on the fourth floor. He runs out into the hallway.

128 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - HALLWAY - DAY

128

He starts trying the room doors for an open one.

DICK

Oh God, if you just get me outta this, I swear to God I'll never fuck up again. Please, just let me get to "T.J. Hooker" on Monday.

He tries a door, it opens.

129 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - STEWARDESS' ROOM - DAY

129

Dick steps in. Three gorgeous girls are doing a killer aerobics workout to a tape on TV. The MUSIC is so loud and they are so into their exercises that they don't hear Dick tiptoe behind them and crawl underneath the bed.

130 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

130

Boris has caught a lot of buckshot but he'll live. He's laying on the floor, Dimes standing over him with a sawed-off shotgun in his hand.

DIMES

Don't even give me an excuse, motherfucker.

Wurlitzer puts the cuffs on Marvin and sits him down on the couch.

Dimes looks into the bathroom and sees the dead Clarence, with Alabama crying over him.

Dimes walks over to Wurlitzer.

DIMES

Everything's under control here.

WURLITZER

Sorry about Nicholson.

DIMES

Me too.

WURLITZER

I'm gonna go see what's going on outside.

DIMES

Yeah, do that.

Wurlitzer exits. Dimes grabs the phone.

131 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LOBBY - DAY

131

Shotgun in hand, Lenny moves hurriedly down the lobby.
A COP yells out.

COP

You! Stop!

Lenny brings up his sawed-off and lets him have it.
Other cops rush forward. Lenny grabs a woman standing by.

LENNY

Get back or I'll blow this bitch's brains to kingdom come!

132 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LEE'S HOTEL ROOM - DAY

132

Dimes is on the phone talking with the department.
Boris is still moaning on the floor. Marvin is sitting on the couch with his hands cuffed behind his back.

Alabama is crying over Clarence, then she feels something in his pocket. She reaches in and pulls out the .45 automatic. She wipes her eyes and remembers Clarence saying:

CLARENCE (O.S.)

She's a sixteen caliber kitten.
Equally equipped for killin' an'
lovin'. She carried a sawed-off shotgun in her purse, a black belt around her waist and the white hot fire of hate in her eyes! Alabama Whitman is Pam Grier! Pray for forgiveness. Rated R... for Ruthless Revenge!

Alabama steps out of the bathroom, gun in hand.

Marvin turns his head toward her. She SHOTS him twice.

Dimes, still on the phone, spins around in time to see her raise the gun. She FIRES. He's hit in the head and falls to the floor.

She sees Boris on the floor.

ALABAMA

'Bye 'bye, Boris. Good luck.

BORIS

You too, cutie.

She starts to leave and then spots the briefcase full of money. She takes it and walks out the door.

133 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - HALLWAY - DAY 133

The elevator opens and Wurlitzer steps out.

Alabama comes around the corner.

WURLITZER

Hey, you!

Alabama SHOTS him three times in the belly. She steps into the elevator, the door closes.

134 INT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - LOBBY - DAY 134

Alabama enters the lobby and proceeds to walk out. In the background, cops are all over the place and Lenny is still holding the woman hostage.

LENNY

(yelling)

I wanna car here, takin' me to the airport, with a plane full o' gas ready to take me to Kilimanjaro and... and a million bucks!

(pause)

... small bills!

135 EXT. BEVERLY WILSHIRE - PARKING LOT - DAY 135

Alabama puts the briefcase in the trunk. She gets into the Mustang and drives away.

136 INT. RED MUSTANG - MOVING - DAY 136

Alabama's driving fast down the freeway. The deejay on the radio is trying to be funny. Then the song "Little Arrows" by Leapy Lee starts playing. Alabama breaks down and starts crying. She pulls the car over to the side of the road.

137 INT. RED MUSTANG - ROADSIDE - DAY 137

The SONG continues.

She wipes her eyes with the napkin she pulls out of her pocket and tosses it on the dashboard.

She picks up the .45 and puts it in her mouth. She pulls back the hammer and looks up to see her reflection in the rear view mirror. She turns it away and looks straight ahead.

(CONTINUED)

137 CONTINUED:

137

Her finger tightens on the trigger.

Her eyes catch the napkin on the dashboard, partly opened and she can see the words.

ALABAMA
(reading from the napkin)
You're so cool.

She tosses the gun aside.

Alabama gets out of the car, opens the trunk and takes out the briefcase. She looks around for, and finally finds, the Sergeant Fury comic book Clarence bought her.

And, with comic book in one hand and the briefcase in the other, Alabama walks away from the Mustang forever.

FADE OUT.

THE END